INFANTILE PARALYSIS INVADES CALIFORNIA

Plea Made to Federal Health Officers to Aid State in Halting Wave of Death in West Move

N. Y. ESTIMATES 750 IN EPIDEMIC

U. S. Assumes Work in Fighting Disease in East While Other Places Report Attacks

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—Two cases of infantile paralysis were reported in Los Angeles today. Health Director Powers issued the following warning to mothers:

Keep children isolated from strangers.
Keep them from crowds.
Don't let them over-exert.
Be careful of their diet.
Keep their bowels open.
Use good common sense.
If they become ill call a physician at once.

Symptoms of the disease are slight cold with slight fever.
Keep them clean.
Four years ago fifty-seven persons died of the disease in Los Angeles. There were about 250 cases here at that time.

SACRAMENTO, July 7.—Believing the chance of the infantile paralysis epidemic spreading in California lies in the transportation of an infected person across the boundary, State Health Officer W. A. Sawyer sent today a communication to Surgeon-General Rupert Blue of the United States public health service, requesting cooperation in preventing the passage of dangerous persons into California. While it is not possible to establish a quarantine, a close surveillance will be kept along the boundary.

TO AID NEW YORK.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Fearing a possible nationwide epidemic of infantile paralysis, the United States public health service today took steps actively to aid New York health officials in fighting the disease that has already killed more than 160 New York babies in less than a month.

Groping in the dark, certain only that a general cause of the disease, the public health service is trying to save the babies of the country. The government is also fighting ignorance of mothers and fathers. The fight has two phases—before a baby is attacked and during its illness.

In the first phase—prevention—general rules of health only are necessary. In the second, the first step is to send for a doctor.

Some of the rules for prevention given by Dr. William C. Rucker, assistant surgeon-general, are:

Care in the baby's diet.
Proper attention to intestinal disorders.
Proper milk—preferably mother's milk.
Plenty of sleep—sixteen hours a day for babies less than one year old.

In case of illness—and especially when infantile paralysis is present in a city—a doctor should be called immediately, Dr. Rucker said.

Perhaps the greatest danger from the disease in the first twenty-four hours is when many parents are trying to cure their babies by home treatment, Dr. Rucker said.

Diet and rest are the principal treatments. The disease is noticed first by fever, pains and intestinal disorders. It may cause death in a day and it may attack a baby so slightly that beyond a day's illness, no bad effects will be felt.

OFFICERS OVERWORKED.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Overworked board of health officials who have been surviving unsuccessfully to kill the infantile paralysis epidemic here, admitted today their belief that the scourge probably would continue throughout the summer. So virulent has been the outbreak that none of the drastic measures heretofore found useful in dealing with it have proved to check its spread. The mortality continues at about 24 per cent—higher than ever recorded in previous outbreaks here.

During the twenty-four hours ending at 10 o'clock this morning twenty-two more children died. Ninety of this number succumbed in Brooklyn. There were eighty-seven new cases reported.

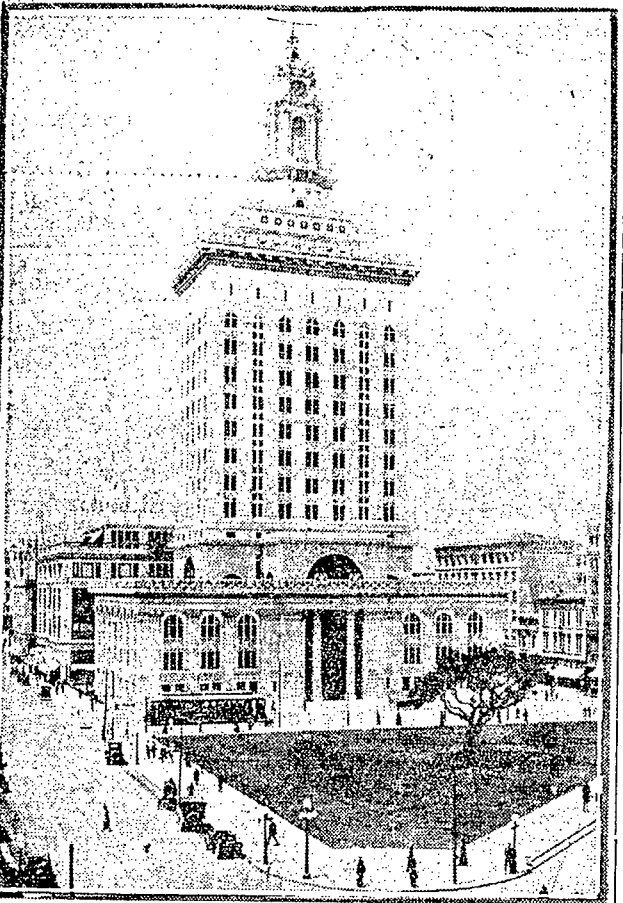

"We have gone the limit in taking every known precaution to prevent the epidemic's spread," said Dr. Emerson, health commissioner, "and yet I have no confidence that we are meeting with success. I look to see the outbreak continue throughout the summer."

Health board officials are anxiously awaiting the arrival here of federal public health service surgeons and epidemic experts whose aid was promised yesterday by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

It was estimated today that the total number of cases reaches 750.

Since the Board of Park Directors have decided that the green grass must not grow around the real estate in the center of the city, and that this beauty spot must earn something—

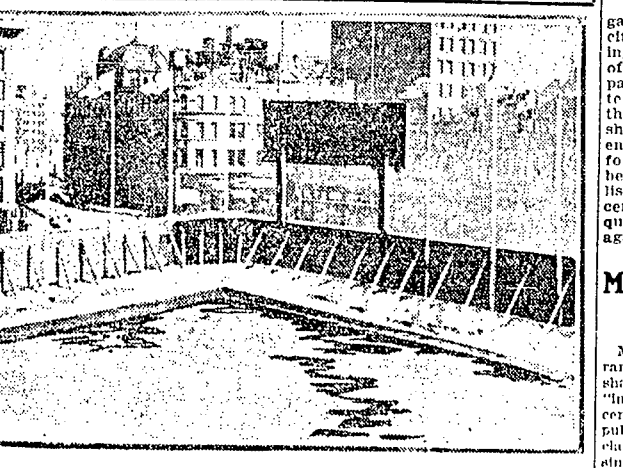

It is respectfully suggested that an income be derived thus—

Or if these billboards still add too much beauty to the city hall surroundings, why not rent the ground to Barley & Banum's Circus? This would look well and would add to the Park Board's income—

Or, instead of building a swimming pool in Lakeside Park (there's too much water around that place, anyhow), why not install a municipal swimming hole, thus—

"D--N," MORE OPINION ON PLAZA SALE

No Time to Investigate "Fool Proposition," Says Attorney

Opponents Speculate on Probable Use of Park Space

"I don't intend to take the time of this office to investigate any such d--n fool proposition," said City Attorney Paul C. Morf today when asked whether he had as yet found time to give the park board a legal opinion as to the right of the city to dispose of the City Hall plaza to raise funds for the purchase of park lands.

"I have received the communication from the superintendent of parks and it is on file in this office," he continued. "We have serious business of the city to attend to, however, and I don't know when I shall get around to it, if ever. Just because some city official conceives an idea that everybody else must recognize as foolish is no reason why the time of this office should be taken up in making investigations of the legal problems that might be involved."

Suppose the city engineer should suddenly get the idea that it would be a good plan to suspend the city hall from several balloons anchored over Oakland and to rent the ground underneath, and should write to this office asking that we investigate whether it could be legally carried out. Do you suppose we should waste our time looking into the matter?"

MOVIES THERE?

Opinions differ greatly as to the use that should be made of the plaza if the sole breathing place in the downtown section of the city should be sacrificed for the fulfillment of a suburban parking plan that can be carried out by other means. Whether it should be used for a sky-railway, an automobile parking and service station, a pavilion for a dance hall, a moving picture theater, an open-air forum for the conduct of council meetings, has not been decided.

That the Plaza is of inestimable value to the municipality as an indispensable adjunct of the custom house, the opinion Dr. Werner Hegemann expressed in his report on "City Planning" for Oakland. He praised the city for having left open the fine vista upon a public building which is becoming world-famous and expressed regret that sufficient land had not been purchased so that an unobstructed view of the city hall could be had from all sides.

He compared the custom of American cities in crowding public edifices into stinky sites bounded by commercial structures with the custom in Europe of building great monumental buildings with ample grounds for the adequate display of their architectural beauties. In the growing cities of the Pacific coast, where land can still be retained for the benefit of future generations, the saw opportunities for development along artistic lines that have been lost forever by the older communities of the East.

REGRET IDLENESS.

That the triangular grass plot is one of the finest pieces of real estate in the bay region with an assessed valuation of $1,200,000 is the argument of the opponents of the sale. They deplore the idleness of such an investment and resent the expenditure of the small amount which is required for the maintenance of the green sward.

Opponents of the sacrifice point out that this argument has not prevailed upon the city of New York to give up Madison Square with its fabulous value in the realty market. They declare that the possession of a breathing spot in the heart of the city is of more importance to present and future citizens than the immediate acquisition of a few acres of hill land in the outskirts.

EFFICIENCY VS. ART.

Those who are fighting to retain the Plaza from the grasping hand of efficiency argue that the erection of a building of any kind on the land would result in the absolute isolation of the city hall. It might be surrounded in a towering collection of high structures, they say, for as time passes the present buildings in the neighborhood will be replaced by taller edifices. It will be impossible from any angle to obtain an unobstructed view of the municipal building, which by photographs and descriptions is making Oakland famous the world around.

Improvement clubs and civic organizations recently petitioned the city council to provide for the placing of comfort stations at the corners of the city hall. The level of the pavement. That they might not interfere with the beauty of the park the plans called for the planting of shrubbery and vines to conceal the entrances. If the Plaza is to be sold for commercial purposes there will be no available place for the establishment of this convenience. In the center of the business district and requests that have been made again and again will have to be abandoned.

Mexico Will Honor Argentina on July 9

MEXICO CITY, July 7.—General Carranza today decreed that Sunday, July 9, shall be observed as a national holiday. "In view of the proximity of the first centenary of the independence of the republic of Argentina," the holiday is declared, Carranza said, "as proof of the sincere friendship of the Mexican people for the people of the South American republic."

U. S. to Pursue Bandit Villa Again

Troops Are to Resume Cause of Trouble Governments Arrive at an Agreement

ALLIES ARE ON SECOND DRIVE PHASE

Germans Withdraw Before Attacks of Russians

British and French Resume Ferocity of Assault

LONDON, July 7.—The second phase of the great battle on the western front has now begun. The artillery has been brought up to new positions and is again battering the German defense. The bombardment extends as far northward as Labasse and Armentieres and, according to the latest official advice, is particularly intense. British long-range guns are shelling the German positions and the roads in their rear and until the infantry again leaves the trenches it will be uncertain where the next attacks are to be launched.

In addition to inflicting losses on the Germans in men, guns and territory the Anglo-French offensive is reported to have compelled them to withdraw some of their forces from the Verdun front. Consequently it is expected in London that the army which for nearly five months without the German attacks in that region will have some relief from continual fighting.

WITHOUT INTERMISSION.

On the eastern front the Russians, who now apparently have even a better supply of guns and ammunition than their adversaries, seem to pass from one phase to the next without intermission. General Letichik's army, which conquered Bukovina and crossed the railway between Delatyn and Korosten, is advancing in an effort to overcome the Austrian forces on that front. General Kaledin is continuing to deliver heavy strokes against the Austrians and Germans, who are endeavoring to keep him from Kovel. With these operations in full swing, the Russians to the north have inaugurated an offensive from Riga to Baranovichi. Along the northern end of the line from Riga to Dvinsk a great bombardment has begun, while from a point east of Vilna to Baranovichi artillery preparation was followed by infantry attacks in which the Russians report they made many prisoners, repulsing German counter-attacks. Near Smorgon the Russians and Germans also are engaged in a severe struggle.

Rumania, it is said here, is awaiting some move by the entente forces in Saloniki. The near east is interested in the battles throughout the Caucasus and Mesopotamia. The Russian army which was advancing toward Baghdad has fallen back some eighty miles under pressure from great forces which were brought against it, but the Persian frontier the Russians, according to their own statements, are more than holding their own. No news has been received recently from the British army in Mesopotamia, but it is believed inactivity has been enforced by the great heat.

TEUTONS HALT ASSAULT.

BERLIN, July 7.—A severe check has been administered to the British in the combined Anglo-French offensive, according to reports received here today and the British have suffered unusually heavy losses. Since the opening day of the British attack General Haig's army has been unable to make any important gains against the German line. Forced to abandon shell-wrecked first-line positions, the Germans retired to their second line north of the Somme, where they threw back time and again British infantry assaults.

It is well understood here that the British will resume the offensive, perhaps with greater violence than marked the first day of the forward movement, but the manner in which the German will withstand the first shock has inspired the greatest confidence in Berlin. A group of British prisoners, captured at the village of Serre, admitted their disappointment at the stubborn German defense.

"We thought it would be a romp after our guns had finished their work," a captured officer was quoted as saying. "Instead, Germans popped out of all sorts of funny places and got machine guns working on us."

That the French have made some substantial gains south of the Somme is not denied here. But the French gains, it is stated, constitute no serious menace to the German line, which is amply prepared to repel any serious menace on the sector around Peronne.

The result of heavy engagements that were in progress at last night, both north and south of the river Somme, were not unfavorable to the Germans, the war office announced today.

Two Men Killed in Motorcycle Accident

WHITTIER, July 7.—Two oil drillers, N. B. Brown and Robert Delemond of Artesia, riding tandem on a motorcycle, were killed today when an Archeson, Torpeka and Santa Fe Railway freight train backed into them as they were crossing the tracks.

FEW GUARDSMEN ASK DISCHARGE

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Though having no statistics on the number of National Guardsmen with dependent families, War Department officials today estimated not more than 1,000 men will be discharged under Secretary Baker's permit to department commanders to free such men from service.

Hundreds of letters asking release of men with families have reached the department, but many of these duplicate the same cases.

In freeing the men the states will give them an honorable discharge and must then recruit others to fill their places. The guardsmen who wish to escape service may make affidavit at any time that his family is in need of his support and the department commander can free him without other ceremony or formality.

CARRANZA PLAN IS ACCEPTED BY UNITED STATES

Lansing Gives Answer of Acquiescence to De Facto Representative.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—A note formally accepting General Carranza's proposal that differences between the United States and the de facto government of Mexico be settled by direct negotiations was handed today to Eliseo Arredondo, the Mexican ambassador designate. Secretary Lansing took a draft of the note to today's cabinet meeting and had it delivered promptly after the cabinet adjourned. The course to be pursued already had been agreed upon by President Wilson and his advisors. The note follows:

"Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of July 4, 1916, in which you subscribe a note addressed to me by the secretary of foreign relations of your government, and to request that you transmit to him the following reply:

"Mr. Secretary: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your courteous note transmitted to me by Senor Arredondo in which you refer to my notes of June 20 and June 25 and to assure you of the sincere gratification of my government that the frank statement of the difficulties which have unfortunately arisen in our relations along the international boundary and the unreserved expression of the desire of your government to reach an adjustment of these difficulties on a broad and amicable basis. The same spirit of friendship and solicitude for the continuance of cordial relations between the two countries inspires my government, which equally desires an immediate solution of the differences which have long vexed both governments."

"It is especially pleasing to my government that the de facto government of Mexico is disposed to give quick as well as practical consideration in a spirit of concord to the remedies which may be applied to the existing condition. Reciprocating the same desire, the government of the United States is prepared immediately to exchange views as to a practical plan to remove finally and prevent recurrence of the difficulties which have been the source of controversy."

"Accept, Mr. Secretary, the renewed assurance of my high-est consideration."

"I am, sir, yours very sincerely,"

ROBERT LANSING."

Report Close Escape From Carranza Trap

COLUMBUS, N. M., July 7.—Mexican arrivals today reported that a detachment of the Fifth United States Cavalry narrowly escaped a Carranza trap in the village of San Antonio, shortly after the Carrizal incident. The detachment had been sent after a large consignment of supplies intended for General Pershing's forces which, through design or mistake, reached San Antonio, south of the American line. Mexican soldiers, hid in adobe houses, covered the American troopers as the leaders of the two sides parleyed in the outskirts. The commander ordered the troopers to fall back immediately and not to enter the village, according to the story the truck men brought. An agreement was finally reached for a motor train, unguarded, to transfer the supplies.

NAPLES, July 7.—Several strong earthquake shocks have occurred in the Neapolitan and Calabria Provinces. They have been connected with the telluric movement which caused the disaster in the Sicilian sulphur mines where 100 men were killed.

PERSHING'S COLUMN IS TO REMAIN IN MEXICO

Washington Hears Bandit Chief Is in Command of Big Army at Town of Jimenez

CARRANZISTAS ARE WIPED OUT IN FIGHT

Entire Border Is Aflame With News That Men Are Flocking Around Standard of Outlaw

WASHINGTON, July 7.—General Pershing's punitive column will not only remain within Mexico "for the time being," but it may even be sent further south to pursue the Villa bandits reported to have virtually annihilated a Carranza garrison near Jimenez Wednesday. This was learned on high authority today following a formal notification of the Villista success by Mexican Ambassador Arredondo to the state department.

Besides state department rumors of Villa and Villistas moving northward in considerable force, Secretary Baker said this afternoon he had heard similar stories from border sources. He had not, however, received Arredondo's recital of the Carrizal fight until he returned from the cabinet meeting.

The cabinet determined that the border situation does not yet warrant withholding any of the militia now in state concentration camps or any present proposal for replacing militia by an increase of the regular army.

VILLA LOOMS BIG.

EL PASO, July 7.—Villa again looms up in the Mexican situation, threatening Carranza's army in northern Mexico. Unconfirmed reports to United States officials here today declare the bandit leader himself is at the head of over 2000 men, in possession of Jimenez, and menacing Torreon, Gomez Palacio and other cities now held by small Carranza garrisons.

Defeating several detachments of de facto troops south of Parral, the rebels reappeared, leaving a trail of death and destruction in their wake, according to information reaching state department agents. As the Villista army advances northward hundreds of recruits are said to be flocking to the bandit chief's standard. If it be true that Villa, once believed dead, has recovered from his wounds and is leading the rebels, officials fear that in a short time he may again have a sufficient number of followers to challenge the large Carranza army in Chihuahua state.

Government agents fear that Villa may soon approach the American border.

PILOT CHARGED.

However, in circles friendly to Carranza, it was charged today that the reported reappearance of Villa is a plot by interests who favor intervention and wish to keep the American punitive expedition in Mexico.

Mexican snipers secreted in a clump of bushes on the opposite bank of the Rio Grande yesterday fired on Privates Erchen and Worden, mounted orderlies attached to the Massachusetts Infantry, in camp here. The shots were not returned.

The body of Captain Charles Boyd probably will be shipped East this afternoon for burial in Arlington cemetery at Washington. The remains of Lieutenant Henry Adair and the seven negroes, also exhumed from the Carrizal battlefield, will be held for a day or two longer, pending advice from relatives.

AGENTS RECRUITING.

COLUMBUS, N. M., July 7.—Declaring that Villa is alive and desires a great army to fall upon the gringos and drive them from Mexico, Villista agents are recruiting in villages south of the American expedition's advanced base.

The agitators and recruiting agencies have also been working among the Carranzistas troops at Villa Ahumada and other garrisons, encouraging desertion to the bandit leader's army. They used the argument that Carranza is in league with the United States.

The Mexican natives who brought this story to the American lines, according to motor truck men arriving here today, firmly believed Villa alive.

DISPUTANT IN SPALDING SUIT SLAIN

War Removes Opponent
From the Path of Claimants

Albert G. Spalding, Jr.,
Is Killed in Battle of Flanders

One of the bitterest opponents against their claim to the estate of the late Albert G. Spalding was removed from the path of Mrs. Elizabeth Churchill Spalding, and her son, Durand Spalding, with the late baseball player, in Flanders. Young Spalding, who had been fighting with the allies, was killed in battle, it was officially reported today. This leaves only one opponent, Keith Spalding, in her path to the millions.

Suits had been entered in several courts of the state including those of Alameda county. News of the death was received today.

The suit against Mrs. Spalding's inheritance is one of the most sensational will contests in California. Spalding's two sons by a former wife filed suit to break up a former wife and her son's share of the estate. They declared that their father was influenced by Mrs. Spalding and Mrs. Katherine Tingley, now head of a Theosophist colony at Point Loma.

OBTAIN PAPERS HERE.

The Alameda county came when, alleging that his son, confined in the Livermore sanitarium, was incompetent, Mrs. Spalding obtained papers of guardianship over him from Superior Judge William S. Wells. This placed all Churchill's control in an estate worth $20,000, and his authority in the fight for a bequest of $35,000 left by his stepfather, in his mother's hands.

Spalding, on his death, left each of his two sons $35,000, his stepson the same amount, and willed the rest of the estate, about $1,000,000, to his widow. The two sons alleged that their father, while ill upon his death, had been worked upon by his second wife and her son, that he made his will at their dictation. Their suit opposed the widow's legacy and also that of her son.

BROTHER CARRIES ON FIGHT.

In the meantime, Albert Spalding, Jr., went to France to fight with the allies, leaving his brother, Keith, to carry on the fight. As the litigation dragged through the courts in southern California, Churchill was supposed to be traveling abroad. It was discovered that he was confined in the Livermore hospital when his mother applied in Oakland for guardianship papers to assume charge of his claims and estate.

What effect young Spalding's death will have on the suit is lawfully in question in the case, but it is admitted that it may materially change the situation.

Fight to Break Will
of John R. McLean

WASHINGTON, July 7.—A great legal battle to break the will of John R. McLean, involving the administration of the millions amassed by the publisher and financier, was set in motion in the District Supreme Court here this afternoon by his son, Edward Beale McLean, sole heir to the fortune.

Former Secretary of State Elihu Root is retained as counsel. The caveat filed late this afternoon in the District Supreme Court declared the late John R. McLean was not sound of mind when he made the will.

The estate is estimated at between $16,000,000 and $20,000,000.

By the will the entire income from the estate was left to McLean and all personal property but the immense capital was left only in trust.

Movies to Record
Greatest of Battles

WASHINGTON, July 7.—America will soon be seeing the big drive in the movies, according to a private London cablegram received today by one of the embassies here.

"Probably no such battle has ever before been recorded," the message says. "The cinematograph operators are everywhere and exposing themselves with great heroism, securing pictures of troops actually leaving the trenches under a galling fire."

California Guardsmen "Under Fire"

Troopers Hear Shot Whistle Above

NOGALES, ARIZ., July 7.—California troops were under fire from the Mexican side of the border shortly after 1 a. m. today. In the midst of a thunder and lightning storm which threatened to break into a deluging downpour any minute, the crack and flash of a rifle report rang out and a lone bullet sang past the ears of Troop D cavalymen, who were patrolling near the customs house.

Owing to the darkness no figures could be seen on the Mexican side. A call was sent to the office of the day, informing him of the incident. Two companies of the Second Infantry, few members of which were able to sleep owing to the pounding thunder, were quickly formed in line and were stationed as a reserve to the Southern California cavalrymen.

With camp thoroughly established today 4600 California guardsmen, under command of Brigadier General Robert Wankowski, are "ready for any emergency." Every unit of the California guard is in camp today and Californians are rapidly becoming acclimated to the intense border heat. During the night the last units from Camp Hiram Johnson arrived.

General Wankowski's staff was announced today as follows: Major R. I. Follmer, brigade adjutant; Major John G. Lee, inspector small arms practice; First Lieutenant James K. Crum, Seventh Infantry, aide, and First Lieutenant Harold H. Hearfield, Fifth Infantry, aide.

Connected troops joined with California guardsmen in sentry duty along the border.

Upon arrival at the camp site the California soldiers found that the regular army forces had kindly done much of the preliminary work of establishing permanent quarters—water and sanitary systems had been installed and a shower bath was in readiness. What remained to do was the erecting of tents, the digging of trenches around them to carry off drainage from the sudden torrential thunder storms of the region and the arrangement of the commissary kitchen. These duties were enough in themselves for the first day in the trying temperature.

Camps of regulars and militia now form a nearly complete semi-circle about Nogales. Cemetery hill, one of the most commanding positions, is occupied by the California battalion of field artillery and a battery from Utah. California cavalry is located near the town, where a quick dash can be made in case of attack. The camp of the Fifth and Seventh Infantry is the most distant from town.

California's contingent is now complete, the signal corps company from San Francisco and the field hospital company from Los Angeles having arrived to complete the division. Sickness among the men is confined to a few cases of intestinal trouble, due to a careless indulgence in food drinks and heat prostrations. There are no more than twenty cots occupied in all the field hospital tents.

Marines Expected to March
Into Town Without Opposition.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—United States marines expected to enter Santiago, San Domingo, last night or this morning without opposition, a radio message to the Navy Department today from Admiral Caperton said. Dominicans were reported quiet. The Navy Department believes there will be no more fighting.

Refusal on the part of three commissioners to vote in favor of the economy added $2500 to the cost of holding the coming recall election, and $5000 in case there are two elections. The question at issue was as to whether there shall be four election officers or six. It requires a unanimous vote of the council to reduce the number to four, and effect a saving of $2800 on each election. Only Commissioner Edwards voted in favor of the economy.

The state law provides for six election officers to a polling place, but permits a council by unanimous vote to reduce this number to four for a special election. The city clerk made his estimates on a basis of four election officers to a polling place, as this had been done by Frank Smith, former city clerk, at a previous special election. His estimate for the two elections was $13,000. This will now have to be raised to $15,000.

The city commissioners met last night to apportion the election officers to their various precincts. They are to receive $5 each for the day's work, and as it is anticipated that the vote will be light, the work will not be heavy. There are only two counts to be made on each ballot, and most of the booths will have finished counting within 45 minutes or an hour after the polls close. The five precincts among their friends, the commissioners met today to fix the wages.

Commissioner Edwards brought up the question as to the number of election officers to each polling place. He pointed out that the city clerk had made his estimates on the basis of four to a tent, and that now the commissioners were planning on six.

"I move that the city clerk be authorized to hold the election with four election officers to each voting place instead of six," said Edwards. "There is no justification for having six officers. By making the reduction we will save $5000 on this election."

"I don't see why, if the people desire to exercise their prerogative of having a recall election they should be made to pay all the traffic will bear for the privilege," said Edwards. "I believe we are here to conduct this city government as economically as possible. The method of holding a recall is provided in the charter, and if the provisions of the charter are observed, it is the people's right, they should not be expected to be placed upon them just because they demand a recall."

"I'd make them pay if it was against me," said Commissioner Anderson.

The ordinance introduced by Commissioner Anderson providing for six election officers to operate over the Tunnel road was given its second reading and passed to print, Commissioner W. H. Edwards voting no.

A. E. Markley of Walnut Creek, Contra Costa county, protested against the Tunnel road being closed to automobiles for hire. It was explained by Commissioner Anderson that the ordinance would not apply to parties being brought from Walnut Creek, Martinez or other points in hired automobiles, rented for the trip, but merely to regular stage or jitney lines being operated.

An ordinance appropriating $2500 for paying at the foot of Broadway, adjacent to Water street, was passed to print by the council.

Commissioner Anderson was granted 30 days' leave of absence with permission to leave the state. Anderson will leave Oakland next Tuesday morning for the East. He will visit New York, Chicago and other cities. During his trip he will attend the annual convention of the National Union, one of the largest fraternal insurance associations in the United States, at Mackinac Island, Mich. Anderson is speaker of the senate of the organization, the office next to that of president. He will not be a candidate for the office of president, as it would require frequent trips to the East.

State Troops Swell
Camp Sam Houston

SAN ANTONIO, July 7.—The arrival of additional state troops and the organization of four new regiments of regulars will make Camp Sam Houston the largest military camp in the United States since the Civil war. There will be between 16,000 and 17,000 soldiers here, including about 11,000 National Guardsmen. The combined strength of the militia alone will be greater than that of the maneuver division of 1911.

"I move that the city clerk be authorized to hold the election with four election officers to each voting place instead of six," said Edwards. "There is no justification for having six officers. By making the reduction we will save $5000 on this election."

"I don't see why, if the people desire to exercise their prerogative of having a recall election they should be made to pay all the traffic will bear for the privilege," said Edwards. "I believe we are here to conduct this city government as economically as possible. The method of holding a recall is provided in the charter, and if the provisions of the charter are observed, it is the people's right, they should not be expected to be placed upon them just because they demand a recall."

"I'd make them pay if it was against me," said Commissioner Anderson.

The ordinance introduced by Commissioner Anderson providing for six election officers to operate over the Tunnel road was given its second reading and passed to print, Commissioner W. H. Edwards voting no.

A. E. Markley of Walnut Creek, Contra Costa county, protested against the Tunnel road being closed to automobiles for hire. It was explained by Commissioner Anderson that the ordinance would not apply to parties being brought from Walnut Creek, Martinez or other points in hired automobiles, rented for the trip, but merely to regular stage or jitney lines being operated.

An ordinance appropriating $2500 for paying at the foot of Broadway, adjacent to Water street, was passed to print by the council.

Commissioner Anderson was granted 30 days' leave of absence with permission to leave the state. Anderson will leave Oakland next Tuesday morning for the East. He will visit New York, Chicago and other cities. During his trip he will attend the annual convention of the National Union, one of the largest fraternal insurance associations in the United States, at Mackinac Island, Mich. Anderson is speaker of the senate of the organization, the office next to that of president. He will not be a candidate for the office of president, as it would require frequent trips to the East.

Marines Expected to March
Into Town Without Opposition.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—United States marines expected to enter Santiago, San Domingo, last night or this morning without opposition, a radio message to the Navy Department today from Admiral Caperton said. Dominicans were reported quiet. The Navy Department believes there will be no more fighting.

Refusal on the part of three commissioners to vote in favor of the economy added $2500 to the cost of holding the coming recall election, and $5000 in case there are two elections. The question at issue was as to whether there shall be four election officers or six. It requires a unanimous vote of the council to reduce the number to four, and effect a saving of $2800 on each election. Only Commissioner Edwards voted in favor of the economy.

The state law provides for six election officers to a polling place, but permits a council by unanimous vote to reduce this number to four for a special election. The city clerk made his estimates on a basis of four election officers to a polling place, as this had been done by Frank Smith, former city clerk, at a previous special election. His estimate for the two elections was $13,000. This will now have to be raised to $15,000.

The city commissioners met last night to apportion the election officers to their various precincts. They are to receive $5 each for the day's work, and as it is anticipated that the vote will be light, the work will not be heavy. There are only two counts to be made on each ballot, and most of the booths will have finished counting within 45 minutes or an hour after the polls close. The five precincts among their friends, the commissioners met today to fix the wages.

Commissioner Edwards brought up the question as to the number of election officers to each polling place. He pointed out that the city clerk had made his estimates on the basis of four to a tent, and that now the commissioners were planning on six.

"I move that the city clerk be authorized to hold the election with four election officers to each voting place instead of six," said Edwards. "There is no justification for having six officers. By making the reduction we will save $5000 on this election."

stalled and a shower bath was in readiness. What remained to do was the erecting of tents, the digging of trenches around them to carry off drainage from the sudden torrential thunder storms of the region and the arrangement of the commissary kitchen. These duties were enough in themselves for the first day in the trying temperature.

Camps of regulars and militia now form a nearly complete semi-circle about Nogales. Cemetery hill, one of the most commanding positions, is occupied by the California battalion of field artillery and a battery from Utah. California cavalry is located near the town, where a quick dash can be made in case of attack. The camp of the Fifth and Seventh Infantry is the most distant from town.

California's contingent is now complete, the signal corps company from San Francisco and the field hospital company from Los Angeles having arrived to complete the division. Sickness among the men is confined to a few cases of intestinal trouble, due to a careless indulgence in food drinks and heat prostrations. There are no more than twenty cots occupied in all the field hospital tents.

LLOYD-GEORGE SUCCEEDS K. OF K.

Sir Edward Grey, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Enters Peerage.

LONDON, July 7.—David Lloyd-George has been appointed secretary of state for war, the post of the late Lord Kitchener, Earl Derby, author of the successful recruiting scheme, was named to succeed the Hon. H. J. Tennant as under secretary of state for war.

The elevation of Sir Edward Grey to the peerage has been expected for some time. Neither did the appointment of David Lloyd-George, former minister of munitions, to the post of Lord Kitchener create any surprise. The way was paved when Edwin Samuel Montagu, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, was appointed to succeed Lloyd-George as minister of munitions.

Full Pay Is Given to City Employees

City employees received their pay today for the remaining ten days in June and were paid in cash. It was thought last month that there would not be sufficient funds to pay the full month and the employees were given pay up to June 20, giving them money in hand with which to enjoy the holidays from July 1 to 5.

Large payments of delinquent taxes and other funds for the fiscal year 1915-1916 made it possible to have sufficient cash on hand to meet the full salary roll.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN SIGN AGREEMENT FOR DEFENSE

TOKIO, Japan, July 7.—The Japanese foreign office announced today as the substance of the Russo-Japanese convention, signed at Petrograd on July 3, the following:

First—Japan will take part in no armed or political arrangement directed against Russia. Russia will take part in no arrangement or political combination directed against Japan.

Second—In case the territorial rights or special interests in the Far East of one of the contracting parties which are recognized by the other contracting party are menaced, Japan and Russia will consult with each other on measures to adopt with a view to supporting or extending assistance for the safeguarding and defense of these rights and interests.

Now that Japan and Russia are pooling their interests in the Far East, they will free themselves from the necessity of regarding each other as possible enemies in the future and from maintenance of large bodies of troops on their respective frontiers.

The impression in Tokio is that the convention is framed to meet attempts at the extension of German influence in the Far East. It is believed to be undecidable, while the hands of both powers are strengthened in dealing with the situation in China.

Englishmen and Frenchmen claim that the accord will check efforts at German aggrandizement after the war and prevent China becoming the cause of an international turmoil. The Japanese are elated over the conclusion of the convention and the signing of the document will be commemorated at a ministerial banquet and probably by a popular lantern celebration.

The newspapers welcome the extension of Japanese influence. The Orient Times says: "England, France, Russia and Japan banded together can thwart all German intrigues for a subsequent war. Furthermore, the maintenance of peace in the Far East must fall more heavily than ever upon the shoulders of Japan and Russia."

"It is learned that the entente has decided upon the exclusion in future of Germany from the quintuple coalition regarding China and that it has been decided to sound American financiers regarding the active participation of America in a loan to China for the reorganization of the republic."

To a question from the Associated Press representative as to what effect the alliance would have upon the open door and the integrity of China, the foreign office replied:

"The convention is essentially an emphasis upon and an extension of the Anglo-Japanese alliance based upon the territorial integrity of China, while open door and integrity are now endangered. American trade and interests are in no wise affected."

The foreign office denied affirmations in Japan newspapers that the convention contained secret clauses, declaring that while the summary given out was the substance of the convention it also was virtually the text of that document.

The accord, which is virtually an alliance, is regarded here as of historic importance as concerning the future development of the Far East and world politics generally. It ends a long period of hostility between the two empires which culminated in the Russo-Japanese war, and strengthens the position of Japan as a first-class power.

JELlicoe FILES BATTLE REPORT

Germans Lost 21 and English 14 Vessels, Is Statement Made.

LONDON, July 7.—Rear-Admiral John Jellicoe has transmitted to the admiralty his official report of the naval battle in the North sea. The report, which estimates the losses on both sides and goes into details of the fight, is practically a confirmation of earlier reports of the battle in England. He estimates the German ships lost at twenty-one and set his own losses at fourteen vessels. He paid high tribute to the gallantry of the German officers and sailors, who he praised as good fighters.

His estimate of the German losses in his report was as follows: Two battleships of the dreadnaught type; one battleship of the Deutschland type, which was seen to sink; battle cruiser Lutzow (admitted by the Germans); one battle cruiser of the dreadnaught type; one battle cruiser, seen to be so severely damaged that its return was extremely doubtful; five light cruisers seen to sink—one of them possibly a battleship; six destroyers, seen to sink; three destroyers so damaged that it was doubtful if they would be able to reach port; a submarine sunk.

Reporting on his own losses, he set the British casualties as follows: "I deeply regret to report the loss of his majesty's ships Queen Mary, Indefatigable, Invincible, Defence, Black Prince, Warrior, Tipperary, Ardent, Fortune, Shark, Sparrow Hawk, Nestor, Nomad and Turbulent. "Still more do I regret the gallant heavy losses of life. The death of such gallant officers as Arbuthnot, Hood, Captain Howerby, Captain Prowse, Captain Cay, Captain Bonham, Captain Charles J. Wintour and Captain Stanley B. Ellis, and those who perished with them, is a serious loss to the navy and to the country. "They led officers and men who were equally gallant and whose death is mourned by their comrades in the Grand Fleet. "They fell doing their duty nobly—a death which they would have been first to desire."

PARALYSIS SCARE THREATENS STATE

California, With Cases Reported, Appeals for Federal Aid.

Since the outbreak of the disease there have been sixty-five deaths.

OTHER CITIES.
PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—The discovery of two cases of infantile paralysis in this city has led to a quarantine today by health authorities to prevent a repetition here of the New York epidemic.

CLEVELAND, July 7.—The fifth case of infantile paralysis was reported to the health officials today. No deaths have occurred, but city officials are planning a more rigid campaign against flies and dirt. All babies arriving from New York are examined.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The death of one child from infantile paralysis and discovery of seven cases here prompted health authorities today to take steps to prevent the epidemic assuming proportions similar to the wave of disease in New York. Several cases were reported down state. Ten deaths from infantile paralysis have occurred in Chicago since January 1, 1916, about the average for the disease here.

JANITOR IN TROUBLE.
Charles L. Bower, a janitor, was held for $2000 bail this morning by Judge L. R. Weinmann, sitting for Judge George Samuels. Bower is accused of stealing a valuable diamond ring from the apartment of Mrs. Mary E. Sharpe in the Fairmount Apartments. Allee near Fourteenth street. Inspector St. Clair Hodekins made the arrest.

DEATH TOLL IN NEW DRIVE IS TERRIFIC

Eighty Per Cent Die in Trenches Behind German Lines in Attacks.

LONDON, July 6.—As the German trenches are occupied evidence accumulates of the deadly execution of artillery. In some cases 80 per cent of the defenders were killed by the terrific shelling to which they were subjected. British losses vary. Certain formations being called on to attack defenses where machine guns remained undamaged, suffered heavily. Others captured the positions which had been set as their objective with very slight losses.

Instead of compelling the Germans to lessen their efforts at Verdun, the Anglo-French offensive seems to have increased their determination, possibly in the hope of preventing the French from sending reinforcements to the Somme. British observers express satisfaction with the progress which has been made. With the heavy casualties caused by the bombardment and the taking of 16,000 prisoners and a great quantity of war material together with the subsequent losses inflicted in counter attacks, it is believed here that the German power of resistance must have been weakened.

Town of Lure Target of Bombs

Report Eleven Women and Children Dead

PARIS, July 7.—The open town of Lure has been bombarded by a German air squadron and eleven women and children killed and three wounded. The war office announced today that the French will reserve reprisals until later. Lure is a town of 6000, lying west of Belfort and near the German lines in upper Alsace.

A French bombarding air squadron last night dropped forty shells on the Ham-les-Noies railways and junctions west of Charlesville. Returning to the French lines, French war planes escorted the bombarding squadron brought down two German planes near Mecleres and the Lessincourt woods.

RUSSIAN HORDES ROLL TO BATTLE

Ranks Seventeen Lines Deep in Some Places, Says Hungarian.

LONDON, July 7.—A despatch to the Morning Post from Budapest quotes a Hungarian correspondent at the eastern front as saying:

"The Russian strength exceeds anything seen in this war heretofore. In some cases they stormed our positions in rows seventeen lines deep and their artillery was so absolutely perfect that no troops could dream of standing up to it. "Much of their artillery consists of Japanese guns manned by Japanese and French officers. They often employ the so-called 'pouring fire,' using ammunition of Japanese and American origin. "In some places the Russian barrage fire continued even after their infantry reached our trenches and in at least one spot both defenders and attackers were totally annihilated. The Russians were buried under the earthworks wrecked by their own artillery."

Handbags Mixed by Thief in Store

Mrs. S. Lester, 684 Sixth street, was shopping in a local department store when she missed her handbag. She hastily went to the counter at which she had made her last purchase and found a handbag standing where she had left hers.

Believing that someone had made a mistake and had taken the wrong grip, Mrs. Lester turned the grip over to the police, hoping that the person who had made the mistake would "swap" handbags with her.

The handbag was identified by Mrs. N. Fox, 3211 Davis street, as one that had been stolen from her in another department store. She had not been in the store where the bag was found. It is thought the thief preferred the second handbag to that of Mrs. Fox's.

SAVED CHICKS' LIVES.
DEFIANCE, Ohio, July 7.—Using a feather duster as a brooder to substitute for a cannibal hen, "Shorty" Eberle saved the lives of some of his chicks. When Eberle is not busy as manager of the Postal Telegraph

Company he devotes his time to raising fancy chickens. When one of his hens was not busy scratching she gave her time to digesting some of the brood she had recently hatched. Eberle noticed the chicks began to disappear. One by one they went until he discovered the hen's appetite was stronger than her mother love. A heavy ration of ground bone and hamburger steak didn't appease her. She ate another. Then, with a cunning he didn't expect of himself, he threw the hen out, bought a big feather duster and suspended it in the coop.

BOARD URGES USE OF CHAIN GANG

Educators Advocate Clean-Up of Schools by Municipal Prisoners.

Use of the chain gang of prisoners in the city jail or of men from the municipal workyard to clean up the school premises, sidewalks and yards during the vacation period was urged at the meeting of the board of education last night by Mrs. Harriet Hawes, one of the directors. Business Manager Daniel Pratt was authorized to investigate as to the possibility of adopting this course, which met with the approval of other members of the board.

It was reported that some of the school grounds have fallen into a disgraceful condition during vacation, that weeds and refuse have collected along the fences and sidewalks around the property. Mrs. Hawes first suggested that it might be the duty of the street department to keep the property frontage in order as the land is owned by the city and is merely used in the school period for school purposes. It was finally decided that the responsibility rested upon the tenant.

San Francisco has been seeking to obtain Miss Alice Bumbaugh, head of the music department of the Fremont High School to aid in the reorganization of the music department of the San Francisco schools, and has offered a higher salary than the maximum in the Oakland scale. At the time Miss Bumbaugh, who has a national reputation for her ability as a music teacher, received the offer of the position in San Francisco at a salary of $1650, she was receiving a salary in Oakland of $1550. She did not know, however, that the board of education had already passed upon a recommendation for an increase to $1520.

The board decided last evening to place no obstacle in the way of Miss Bumbaugh accepting the San Francisco offer, if she so desired, but to request her to remain in Oakland if she could see her way clear to do so. The San Francisco department had intimated that the offer was subject to the condition that no objection should be raised by the Oakland department.

The employment of Joseph A. Garrett, accountant, at $140 a month, and A. M. Wickland, bookkeeper, at $100, was authorized and will continue at the pleasure of the board. The men are recommended by Klink, Bean & Co., to assist in the new accounting system for the department.

Business Manager Pratt reported that the civil service board will be ready in about a week to recommend eligibles for the position of superintendent of buildings and grounds, the new position created by the board.

The decree of the State Industrial Accident Commission that the school department must give to the sister of Miss Julia McCord, a music teacher killed by being run down by an automobile last February, a benefit of $3000, was received by the school board and referred to the district attorney for an opinion as to whether it will be proper to pay the claim or to carry the case to a higher court. The commission held that Miss McCord was injured while in the performance of her duty.

A letter from Fire Chief Elliot White, head regarding giving instruction to school children concerning fire prevention and fire fighting was referred to the committee of the whole.

Miss Annie Florence Brown, who was elected the new president of the board Wednesday, sent a telegram to the board accepting the position and expressing her appreciation of the honor.

THE CONFESSIONS OF PROXANE

by FRANCES WALTER.

When I reached my desk I penned an invitation to the Staleys, asking them to come the next morning.

We finished shopping at noon and met Arthur. We went to the Savarre for lunch. Miss Brooks' attitude to him was a revelation to me of the capacity of a woman of her sort for hiding her true feelings. She chatted with him like a young girl, and she even gave me the impression that she was coquetting. It was very amusing and I almost forgot the pain in my heart in watching her.

Arthur talked as if there were nothing on his mind. He made particular effort, I thought, to be entertaining to her. She raved about the excellence of his choice of food for the lunch and the excellence of the music. She praised everything in superlatives.

At last the luncheon was over. I had not a chance to say a private word to him. One of Miss Brooks' chief virtues was tenacity. She would not look away, much less step away for a space so that I might say something to Arthur. He squeezed my hand and whispered as he left.

"Good-by, dear. You are very lovely." The true character of Miss Brooks evidenced itself when he had gone. He was not out the door before she began to "Any man who would order a lunch like that is fickle. He has evidently had a great deal of experience ordering luncheons for women. And the idea of making a habit of going to places where there is music! Don't you know, my dear, that music has a tendency to make one sentimental? It has, I know. When I was young, a man I knew used to do just that with me. He would take me to a concert and then make violent love to me when we came home. The effect of the music was such that I could hardly resist his advances and, if my character had not been strong, who knows I might have married him.

The old lady sighed very deeply. "Ah, the look in his eyes when he talks to me!" she continued. "And that smile. I admit it is captivating and I don't wonder poor Myrtle was charmed. My dear, you will have to do something drastic to hold him. Some one will surely lure him away. It would be tragic if you had to separate so soon after your marriage. I once knew a couple who were divorced less than a month after their wedding. People are so silly to marry these days." She sighed again.

"We parted at my door. I wanted to leave her long before we reached home, but she insisted on coming with me. She would not let me think clearly. When I reached my desk I penned an invitation to the Staleys, asking them to come the next evening. I was uncertain as to what would be done, but I would trap them anyway. I also decided to be cold to Arthur until I had determined the truth or falsity of the gossip."

BUSINESS GOOD, RAIL HEAD SAYS

Expects Prosperity for Another Year and Perhaps Longer.

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—D. W. Campbell, who has been assistant general manager of the northern division of the Southern Pacific system, with headquarters in Portland, Ore., has arrived in Los Angeles to succeed H. V. Platt as assistant general manager of the southern division, from San Francisco to El Paso, with headquarters in this city. Platt has become vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Short Line.

"The railroads are the best barometers of business conditions," said Campbell last night. "Any change affects a railroad more quickly than it does anything else. When a railroad is doing a good business everything else is. And right now the railroads are doing a fine business. And prospects are good for a continuance of good business for at least a year or two. There is a ready market for everything a country produces, the prices are good, the pay of labor is good and there are few idle men, so far as my observations go."

Campbell, who was born in Canada, is a naturalized citizen of the United States. He is past 40 years of age. He brought with him his wife. They will make Los Angeles their home. He began railroading as a telegraph operator when he was 13 years old and has been gradually promoted through the succeeding years.

Macdonough Chorus Girls Hold Contest

The chorus girls' contest, the unusual as well as entertaining feature presented weekly by the Dillon & King company now appearing at the Macdonough theater, will be presented again this evening after the first and second shows of their current military musical extravaganza, "Johnny Get Your Gun."

This novel entertainment has become one of the most popular features of the entertainments that have been presented at the Macdonough since the comedians' return to Oakland. The Friday night chorus girls' contests have attracted wide attention among the theater patrons on this side of the bay. The contests have proved particularly exciting and the race for first place has become particularly keen. Those who attended the Macdonough last Friday evening saw an entertainment that has seldom been rivaled in any local vaudeville house. For this evening Dillon and King's clever "Ginger Girls" have in preparation a program consisting of a wide variety of vaudeville acts that should prove unusually entertaining.

Initiative Laws to Be Placed on Ballot

SALEM, Ore., July 7.—Eight initiative state-wide measures, five proposed county laws and three measures referred by the last legislature will go to the ballot at the November election. It was assured last night when the time for filing petitions expired.

Of the measures initiated chief interest centered in two affecting prohibition. One would legalize the manufacture of liquor and the other would make the state wholly "dry" by forbidding the importation of liquor for individual consumption.

A proposed measure to enforce one day of rest in seven failed to obtain enough signatures to place it on the ballot.

Police Seek Woman Missing From S. F.

The police on both sides of the bay have been notified of the disappearance of Mrs. Margaret Stevens, 261 Carl street, San Francisco. Richard Stevens, her husband, reported the matter to the police here, giving her age as 50; her height as five feet and her weight as 140 pounds. When she left home she wore a blue dress, trimmed with fur and a wide-brimmed hat covered with a large white feather.

SMIZE "RAGS": FIND WHISKY. GALLIPOLIS, Ohio, July 7.—Federal officers confiscated a carload of whisky that was billed out of this place on the Kanawha & Michigan railroad as "old rags" for Charleston, W. Va. It is expected that the persons responsible for the shipment will soon be arrested.

FIRE IN MILL. Prompt work by the fire department saved the California Standard Mill Company, 533 Second street, from serious damage when sawdust in the engine room caught fire from a furnace. Monetary loss was almost nothing.

Coal Demand Causes Scarcity of Fuel

Ships Are in Need of Additional Tonnage to Report of Local Dealers.

Demand for coal has created a scarcity of that article in port, it was announced by wholesale dealers, and although shipments are being received daily from British Columbia, Australia, Seattle and Eastern ports, the supply can barely keep up with the demand. The Western Fuel Company of this city has received almost 15,000 tons of coal during the month and their barges are loading it away as rapidly as it can be unloaded to supply steamers preparing to sail.

The Rolph Company has a number of vessels coming from Australia with a cargo of coal and it was necessary for some of them to go via Honolulu to supply the bunkers there. The Norwegian steamer Thor is making a ten days' trip between Nanaimo and Oakland, bringing down 7000 tons, and navy coal barges 211 and 212 are being loaded at the Southern Pacific wharves by shipments from the East. They will be towed to Mare Island when loaded.

CHINESE ARRESTED.

Kei Woo, a Chinese peddler, is booked at the city prison, where he is charged with a violation of municipal ordinance 2415, section 67, which relates to the subject of peddler and vender licenses. Kei Woo's license for peddling did not satisfy Officer Garcia entirely. The arrest occurred at Seventh and Wood streets.

FIVE BOATS SUNK.

LONDON, July 7.—Five more British fishing boats have been sunk in the North sea by German submarines. In one case a fishing boat which tried to escape was shelled. One member of the crew was killed and three injured.

German Ships Take British War Prize

Part of Teuton Sea Fleet Captures Lys-tries Near Coast After Exciting Chase.

BERLIN, July 7.—Official announcement was made today that the British steamship Lestrin was held up by German warships near the English coast and seized as a prize. The statement says the Lestrin was held up by "a portion of the German high sea forces."

CARMEN TO DANCE.

The third annual grand ball of the Municipal Carmen's Union, Division No. 518, will be held at the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco August 12. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the fund for the relief of sick members, dependent families and for the aid of widows and orphans.

We told you last week when these great sales started that the department must be thoroughly swept of present stocks for the new buyer. Reductions were then taken regardless of cost, and with only the point in view, of making the sale as short and decisive as possible. The response to that announcement was magnificent. Now with greater determination to carry out our purpose in the time appointed, prices have again been cut to an extent where as one saleswoman expressed it, "it's like giving them away"; and true as was her remark, it must be done in order to carry out our new plans and ideas for this department.

Our new buyer will be leaving for the East shortly to make his permanent headquarters in New York. While here we will be pleased to take any special orders that customers may wish executed.

HOTEL BILL AIDS WIFE TO DIVORCE

Tells Court She Was Not Lady
at Modesto and Wins Decree.

On the grounds that she had in her possession a receipted hotel bill from a Modesto hotel made out to "G. Cunningham and wife" and that she was not the "wife" in the case, Mrs. Annie Cunningham has been awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband, a bond salesman.

A similar decree has been obtained by Mrs. Minnie Halbert on the grounds that she had set her husband up in the fruit and vegetable business and that he had beaten her when she refused to give him more money.

HOME REPLICAS LONGFELLOW'S.
BABYLON, L. I., July 7.—The two and one-half story frame colonial style home of William Loring Andrews, in Oak Neck road, two miles east of Babylon, is a replica of the Longfellow home at Cambridge.

70 Vacation Cars Halted by Speed Cops Constables' Nets Make County Haul

HAYWARD, July 7.—Seventy dusty automobiles loaded with tents, poles and other summer camp impedimenta, with passengers and families at the wheel and a bright, eager-eyed family in the tonneau, swished along the county roads.

"We're off!" shouted the youngsters. "Give 'er more juice, pa." And pa, nothing loath and with thoughts possibly on his favorite fishing pool, opened the throttle and the seventy cars went merrily along.

Four alert speed cops, mounted on high-power motorcycles and with eyes only on number plates and stop-watches and recking not of vacation joys, watched the procession of dusty automobiles with cold, calculating eyes. They reckoned that every one of the joy machines was going at from thirty-five to fifty miles an hour.

As a result of the speed cops' vigilance seventy motorists will have to leave their vacation camps and pleasure resorts to pay a visit to the county speeders' courts and possibly part with $25 of their holiday funds in fines.

Four justices of the peace courts at Hayward, Pleasanton, Centerville and Livermore will try the cases Monday and Wednesday. The seventy arrests is the largest number to be made in one week for more than a year. "Vacation time is responsible for the record number of arrests," said Deputy District Attorney M. J. Clark, who is prosecuting. "The roads are crowded with motorists hurrying to summer camps and in their eagerness to get there some of them seem to have forgotten such things as speedometers."

ROOMS ROBBED.

Luis Mikas, 4628 East Fourteenth street, reports to the police that someone entered his room with a pass key, taking a dark gray suit, a pair of black lace shoes and a gold badge, the total value of which was $33. In another part of the city a similar robbery occurred, a house at 764 Forty-first street suffering from the visit of a sneak thief. Giuseppe Massetti and A. Cerutti, who live there, reported the loss to the police. A few minor valuable articles were taken.

TELLS PLOT TO WRECK STEAMER

Dock Employee Says He Was Asked to Place Bomb on Vessel.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—What is believed to have been a plot to place a bomb on board the steamer City of Topeka of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company and to bribe a dock employee to perform the job was revealed today in a report to the police by Jerome Shurbund. The scheme did not go through and that the authorities were not early apprised of the situation was due to the fact that Shurbund was attacked and severely beaten by three men at Fillmore and Ellis streets at his refusal to be a party to the scheme and has ever since been confined to his home.

It was on the night of July 1 that Shurbund, who lives at 321 Grove street, was stopped at the corner of Ellis and Fillmore streets by a man who had been following him. Two others came and immediately began to intimidate him, he said. They told him that they knew he had been working on the docks and that he had better take their bidding or they would "get him."

They showed him a roll of paper money and handed over a package, saying they would pay him well if he would put it on the City of Topeka, which was being loaded for her regular trip to Eureka. He refused, whereupon, he says, he was struck in the face and dropped to the sidewalk. As he arose he drew a pocket knife and slashed at the two men nearest him, cutting one in the forearm and the other in the left hand. He then leaped into a passing jitney bus and escaped. He reached home in a dazed condition and it was found that his nose had been broken. This morning he reported the occurrence to Police Corporal Harvey, furnishing a description of the culprits.

The police will make a careful investigation of Shurbund's story and extra precautions will be taken on the docks.

SPECIALS ON GUARD.

Rumors of violence on the waterfront and in the lumber districts south of Market street, led Chief of Police White this morning to call into active service thirty of the special duty men of the force. The various city departments which have been enjoying the services of a policeman or two were stripped and thirty men donned uniforms and will report to Acting Captain Duncan Matheson of the Harbor Station and Captain Marcus Anderson of the Southern Station at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Not since the street car strike of 1907 have the special duty men been called in from their posts. There are already 90 extra men on strike duty in addition to the sixty members of Captain Matheson's company and the number will now be swelled to 120. Detective Sergeant Thomas B. Walsh, assigned to the mayor's office, Sergeant Frank O'Brien of the district attorney's office, Detective J. B. Freese of the city attorney's office and one patrolman each on the two night watches in the treasurer's office were alone exempted from the order. The Board of Education, the Board of Censors, the Youths' Directory, the Detention Home, the S. P. C. C., the city hall, the medical detail and many other special assignments are affected.

SITUATION SERIOUS.

"I believe the situation is such as to demand the additional police protection," declared Chief White. "I am anxious to prevent trouble and I intend to have all the available men on duty along the waterfront."

The chief would not admit that he had received information of intended violence but it is known that there have been numerous anonymous letters circulated and that Captain Matheson has been alive to the danger that he has remained himself on duty for stretches of 18 hours on the waterfront. Of the new men assigned eight go to the lumber yard district and the remainder to the docks. There are to be no days off and no vacations for members of the department until the strike is settled.

TEAMSTERS MAY JOIN.

If the bay and river boatmen's strike is not settled by Monday, members of the Brotherhood of Teamsters will walk out in sympathy. This was the plan today, following a meeting of the local lodge, at which the river strike situation was discussed. The longshoremen's strike has nothing to do with this move, it was declared.

Michael Casey, president of the union, in announcing the plan declared that the bay and river boatmen had been refused arbitration, although their demands were justified. If the teamsters quit, Casey said, the produce business in San Francisco may be seriously affected, as a great portion of the fruits and vegetables used here are brought to the wharves in river vessels and handled on the docks by the teamsters' union.

RUN OVER TWICE.

COLUMBUS, Ind., July 7.—Robert Bottorff, aged 8, was riding his bicycle and struck a bakery wagon. The wagon ran over him. The horse became frightened and backed and the wheels passed over the boy a second time. He was grinning when picked up, but his face was scratched considerably and the driver hurried him to the office of a physician. The physician was not in and the boy demanded the privilege of going home, saying he was "not hurt, anyhow."

Drives Automobile Into Excavation

An excavation made by the Oakland Terminal Company at San Pablo and Fifty-ninth, was the cause of a near-accident, according to the police, when Jasper Williams drove into it with his automobile during the night. Williams, his wife and two friends were in the machine, which had just turned into San Pablo from Fifty-ninth street. The street railway company is relaying some tracks at this point. Williams did not see the excavation, and steered into it, causing considerable damage to the machine. Other than a severe shaking up, no injuries were reported from the passengers.

BURGLAR FLEES; TOO MUCH NOISE

Maner's Daughters' Howls Routs Thief at 3 in the Morning.

HAYWARD, July 7.—Quit your hollerin', will you, girls! I don't touch you," pleaded a badly scared burglar as he stood open-eyed and dumfounded while three young daughters of Manuel F. Smith lifted their voices in lusty protest against his presence in their bedroom at 3 o'clock in the morning.

Exclamations and curses were drowned in the chorus of ear-splitting howls from the terrified maidens. The burglar's knees began to shake as he stood irresolute before the onslaught of screams pitched in a high staccato. He didn't even think of his blackjack or revolver. Against the noise of the effective weapon of the fair sex, wielded with such a will by the trio of young women, what would a whole arsenal of revolvers avail?

Without taking the time to pick up a single valuable, the burglar, shocked and horrified and his nerves shaken, promptly jumped out of the window, while the yells chased him across the fields until he could get out of earshot. When Smith rushed in to inquire the cause of the din he discovered his daughters still walling.

Hayward Church to Hold Public Market

HAYWARD, July 7.—A market day carnival on lines similar to the Belgian relief fund carnival in Oakland will be held in the Niles Canyon here as a benefit for the Hayward Congregational Church September 22. A variety of wares will be dispensed from gaily decorated stalls presided over by members of the church.

Committees have already been appointed and are working out details. The chairman of the committee are: Louise, Mrs. C. C. Corwin; confectionery, Miss Ruth Kimball; ice cream, Mrs. C. C. Corwin; counter, Miss L. Andrew Oliver; fancy articles, Mrs. Kimball; useful articles, Mrs. Ella Allen; Sunday school stall, Miss Irene Templeton; dessert, Mrs. Mark Templeton; delicatessen, Miss Harriet Presley; tea and coffee, Miss C. N. Coulter.

Eloped With Boy, Is Charge Against Woman

SAN JOSE, July 7.—Mrs. Thelma Rogers, 26 years old, is accused of eloping with Amador Bernal, 16 years old, by the mother of the boy, who has sworn out a warrant charging Mrs. Rogers with contributing to the lad's delinquency.

Annexation Issue Fails at Martinez

MARTINEZ, July 7.—The annexation of seven square miles of territory, including this city and outlying districts, to the city of Martinez was defeated in a special election here. The vote stood 44 in favor and 37 against the issue, falling short of the necessary two-thirds vote.

Attempts to Kill Spouse With Knife

SAN LEANDRO, July 7.—Quintero Arero, living on Orchard avenue here, ran amuck with a butcher knife and attacked his wife, ripping her clothing to shreds but not injuring her person. During the struggle, Arero upset a pan of boiling fat over the infant child, severely scalding the baby.

American Yoemen to Picnic in Niles Canyon

SAN LEANDRO, July 7.—The bay counties Homeboys of the Brotherhood of American Yoemen will give a picnic in Niles Canyon July 30. Hundreds of lodge members and their friends from Oakland, San Francisco, Richmond, San Leandro and other centers will attend the outing. Mrs. E. Hooley and B. J. Hooley represent the Homeboys.

NEVER SAW "MOVIES"

COLUMBUS, O., July 7.—Mrs. Emily Booker, 70 years of age, a former slave, in Columbus visiting relatives, for the first time saw an electric car, an elevator, a moving picture show and a building more than two stories in height. Her relatives gave her the first knowledge she had that a war is in progress in Europe. Mrs. Booker is in progress in Europe. Mrs. town, Ky., thirty miles from a railroad and almost as far from a highway. Once, several years ago, she saw a party of tourists in an automobile which had strayed from the road through the wilderness in which she has lived all her life.

TO INSTALL OFFICERS.

SAN LEANDRO, July 7.—Estadillo Parlor No. 223, Native Sons of the Golden West, will install officers today. Visiting grand officers will witness the ceremony and an entertainment program will follow. The recently organized drum corps of Estadillo Parlor is in splendid shape for participation in the September 9 celebrations.

ENTERTAIN BRIDE-ELECT.

HAYWARD, July 7.—Mrs. Vincent Strobel entertained at her home on Main and C streets the afternoon in honor of Miss Alice Garrison, a bride-elect. The wedding was one of several arranged for Miss Garrison.

CONSTIPATION AND INDIGESTION.

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Kington, of Wisconsin. (Chamberlain's Tablets are mild and gentle in their action. Give them a trial. You are certain to find them the most agreeable laxative effect while they produce. Boys in Khaki at Front to Have Postage Red Cross to Collect Funds for Soldiers

"Writing home" is one of the daily recreations of the National Guardsmen in their camps along the Mexican border near Nogales and at other points on the international line where the volunteer defenders of the country are stationed in these days of disturbed relations between the two republics. It affords not only a welcome diversion from the routine of military duties and a little rest for the natural home-sickness of those who are far from their loved ones, but it brings as well to those who are waiting at home the news that all is well.

Exigencies of the soldier's kit, however, prevent the carrying of any considerable amount of correspondence paper, envelopes and cards and many a defender of his country finds himself at times unprovided with materials for messages which he would like to send. To supply this lack, a movement has been started by the American Red Cross Society which will give the children of the land an opportunity to do their share in the alleviation of the rigorous life of the soldier. Oakland children are being informed today of the manner in which they can help, through an appeal from Miss Mabel T. Boardman of the executive committee of the Red Cross in Washington. Each child, by contributing a mite to a fund which will be administered by the society for the purchase and distribution of postcards and writing material for the boys in khaki, can show patriotism and loyalty.

Known as "The Children's Red Cross Postal Fund," the money will be a tangible expression of the admiration and love of the boys and girls for the men who are ready to sacrifice life in the service of their country. Local

WIFE BEATER IN JAIL FOR 15 DAYS

August Smith, who gets drunk consistently and follows up this habit with battery, committed on his wife, is in jail today with a sentence of 15 or 16 days hanging over his head. Smith was brought into jail for the first time on July 5, having beaten Mrs. Smith in their home at 6240 Bromley avenue. Released, he went home and did the same thing all over again. This time he was not allowed to go, and Judge L. R. Weinmann, sitting for Judge George Samuels, sentenced him to money or prison. Officer Garandine made the arrest both times at the request of Mrs. Smith.

contributions will be received by the Oakland branch of the Red Cross and the coins which are given by Oakland children will be used to send writing materials to Oakland soldiers.

CITIZEN - POLICE FOR LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—Upon recommendation of Chief Snelvy, the police commission has decided to ask the city council to adopt an ordinance providing for the immediate appointment of a "citizen police," the members of such organization to serve without pay.

In his letter to the commission, Chief Snelvy said that it is especially desirable that action be taken now. "Los Angeles," reported Chief Snelvy, "faces more or less of a dual crisis at this time, on account of the Mexican war clouds and on account of the longshoremen's strike at the harbor. This last trouble has caused more than 100 of our regular patrolmen to be detailed to San Pedro, leaving their places to be filled by new men appointed under an emergency ruling."

Bloomer Skirt Thwarts Death Ballooning Garment Fails Suicide

NEW YORK, July 7.—Miss Bertha Dietz woke up in Knickerbocker hospital with a grudge against fate and her bloomer skirts today. The things ballooned and wouldn't let her sink when she jumped into the Hudson from a ferryboat. The net result of her attempted suicide is a bad cold for herself and probably a medal for the cop who hauled her out. She wanted to die because she didn't feel well.

JURIST TO GO EAST. HAYWARD, July 7.—Justice of the Peace Frank Mitchell will go to Davenport, Iowa, as one of the five delegates from this state to the national convention of Knights of Columbus. The convention meets August 1. During Judge Mitchell's absence Judge Ralph Richmond of Niles will sit for him in the San Leandro court.

DEATH TEMPTS MAN AWAITING TRIAL

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—R. H. Hunter, a miner recently arrested at Atolla, 24, Bernardino county, on a charge of failure to provide for his family, attempted to make his exit from Superior Judge Craig's courtroom here dramatic at least. He stooped himself twice in the neck with a penknife, shouted that he wished to die and was then rushed to the receiving hospital.

There police surgeons mended the wounds and now Hunter is repeating in a cell in the county jail. He will have to have a trial on the failure to provide charges. When Hunter was arrested he pleaded earnestly that his intentions toward supporting his family were sincere, so the court released him on his own recognizance. Yesterday he came up for a preliminary examination on the charge. It developed then that Hunter was not as sincere as he claimed to be, for he had cashed away $80 in a local bank while his family was said to be in want. Accordingly he was held to trial.

CALOMEL ISN'T SOLD HERE NOW

Nasty Drug Salivates, Makes
You Sick and You Lose a Day's Work.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tonic is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tonic is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tonic is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 40 cents, and it is said to give relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant, purely vegetable remedy. It is harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine, no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach, or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.—Advertisement.

ENDEAVORERS DO ROUTINE BUSINESS

Stockton Meeting Addressed
by Several Visiting Delegates.

STOCKTON, July 7.—The members of the veterans' association of the California Christian Endeavorers went on an automobile trip into Northern San Joaquin today where they spent the day picnicking and touring the Tokay grape section.

Early this morning Bible study conferences were held. The feature of the morning's session was an address by Dr. Walter B. Hinson of Portland, formerly pastor of the White Temple, on "Jesus, the Christ, Why I Believe It."

Dan Poling of Boston took a mighty fling at the cigarette habit in his address on "The Grip That Holds." The juniors and intermediates held conferences this morning. Joseph Cohn of Brooklyn was again on the program today, speaking on the "Wandering Jew." Tomorrow night the 3000 Endeavorers here will hold a big "preparedness" parade to urge people to prepare to receive religion.

The battle of Long Beach and Riverside for the 1917 convention waxed hotter today. Delegates en route to the early meetings of the convocation's third day were accompanied with literature by boosters for the southern cities. The choice will be made tomorrow.

State Mines Show Much Activity War Prices Boom Output of Base Ores

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 7.—There has been greater activity in the mining industry in California in the first six months of this year as compared with the first half of 1915, but it has been largely in the direction of the reopening of old properties that have been idle, several of them for years, according to the United States geological survey. Reports from the United States mint at San Francisco, and local smelters and refiners show that they are in receipt of $358,000 less California gold and 22,000 ounces more silver, in the first five months of 1916, than in the corresponding period of 1915.

Aside from the gold, silver, copper and lead mining industries of the state, there has been thus far in 1916 a heavy demand for such mineral substances as chrome, tungsten, manganese, manganese, antimony and others. A great many mines of this character have been opened for the first time. For the first time in history many of these mines are shipping crude ore to the Eastern seaboard by rail, the high prices permitting this.

There has been no noticeable increase thus far this year in the number of productive gold mines in the state. During the first half of 1916 there has been greater gold mining activity in the Mother Lode counties than has been the case for many years. These five counties produced 61 per cent of the annual output of siliceous ores. The older mines are all reported doing well.

DEEP MINING

Deep mining outside of the Mother Lode section of the state also is unusually active. In the Grass Valley district, Nevada county, both the North Star and Empire mines, the leading producers, are finding high grade ore in the depths. In the Providence, of the Champion group, Nevada City, a strike of high grade ore, carrying telluride, has been made. In this section a number of small and idle mines are coming into possession of the larger companies in order to improve their position in the district.

In the southern counties of the state, notably in the desert regions of Inyo, San Bernardino and Riverside counties there is a distinct revival of mining activity, largely brought about through the adoption of auto trucks for delivery ore to the railway stations for shipment to reduction works.

The gold dredging industry of the state continues in a flourishing condition. The dredges produce 85 per cent of the placer gold in California, and 38 per cent of the total gold yield. The larger companies have been adding new machines to their equipment, and these are invariably of great capacity, several costing half a million dollars each. It is said, the new dredge of the Katoona Company in the Folsom district, designed to restore ground to its natural condition after dredging, permitting its use for agriculture, has demonstrated its efficiency, according to reports.

GREAT DREDGE

Extensive areas of placer ground near Redding have been banded and are being prospected for dredging. More than 1500 acres of dredging ground along the Trinity river, from Lewiston to Poker Bar, have been acquired by capitalists, and one dredge is to be in operation this summer; two more probably next year. Dredge machinery from Ohio, for the dredge near Carville, amounting to 2000 tons is being hauled from the railroad at Redding, sixty-two miles into the mountains. 300 mules being used for the hauling work. The largest dredge in the world, according to reports, has been completed and set to work on the Yuba river, near Hammond.

Hydraulic mining has not been very active outside of Trinity and Siskiyou counties, but some new mines have been started in Central California. A merger of hydraulic mining interests is reported to be made in the State Creek district, Sierra county, and extensive work is said to be contemplated, under supervision of the California Debris Commission. A mammoth restraining dam is to be put across State Creek, which will permit, when completed, hydraulic operations at Gibsonville, La Porte and other famous old camps, that have been long idle.

A revival of drift mining in the state along the Magallowa ridge in Butte county, has brought about numerous changes, it is reported, and the reopening of many old properties. The old South Fork property, on Oregon Creek, Sierra county, is now continuing the 6000 feet bed rock tunnel to try to reach the channel in the extension of the famous old Bald Mountain drift mine.

COPPER ACTIVE

Copper mining in the state has been very active in 1916, owing, it is said, to the high price of the metal. The larger companies are said to have increased miners' wages in the form of a bonus while electrolytic copper sells at 20 cents a pound or more. New copper properties have been opened in Trinity, Siskiyou, Plumas, Madera and other northern counties as well as in several of the southern counties of the state.

The Eagle Copper Company, in Plumas, is using the flotation process to concentrate its ore before being shipped to Nevada smelters. The Calaveras Copper Company, near Copperopolis, has, it is said, increased the capacity of its flotation plant. The Bunker Hill copper mine, near Auburn, in Siskiyou county, which was shut down in 1915, has since been reopened this year, according to reports.

LYNCH TELLS OF STRIKE SITUATION

Merchants of S. F. Hear Plea for Order on Waterfront.

A vigorous denunciation of conditions on the waterfront of San Francisco featured the address of Dr. Robert Newton Lynch, vice-president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, before the members of the Home Industry League, at their weekly luncheon yesterday at the Palace Hotel.

"Conditions are deplorable," said Lynch in part. "Lawlessness and criminality hold the upper hand, and yet the mayor of the city, when told of these conditions by a body of business men, declares there is nothing wrong—that he has personally visited the waterfront and found everything lawful and orderly."

Lynch urged every businessman present to lay aside all other appointments and attend the mass meeting of business interests to be held on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce to take definite action to the end that every first in the city may secure its goods from the wharves without imperiling their lives and property.

Dr. B. M. Rastall, the industrial expert, recently brought to San Francisco to "find out what is the matter with San Francisco commerciality," told of the manner of working, and in speaking of industrial conditions as he is now finding them in this state, he concluded: "What California industries need now more than anything else is 'Exploitation' and 'Publicity'."

"If California does not buy home-made goods sufficiently well to satisfy the factories it is simply because the factory owners have not given sufficient thought to publicity in the matter. A campaign for window displays in which nothing would be shown except home-made goods was recommended by Dr. Rastall. No action was taken by the league officially on the strike situation.

YOSEMITE BANDIT BAFFLES POSSES

Reward of $200 Offered for Capture of Bold Highwayman.

FRESNO, July 7.—Poses returned discouraged and weary today after vainly searching the hills near Yosemite Valley for the bandit who robbed passengers of five stages Wednesday and escaped with $400. All traces of the highwayman came to naught. Officers believe he made good his escape.

A reward of $200 for the man's arrest has been offered by the Yosemite Stage and Turnpike Company. The ease with which the crime was committed makes Sheriff Lewis believe the road agent was the same man who held up many stages near Yosemite five years ago, terrorizing the district for weeks.

Niles Constable an Optimist and Worker

THE TOWN'S POLICE DEPARTMENT
DOES NOT PUBLISH THE VALOROUS DEEDS.

NILES, July 7.—When Constable J. Rose of Niles says "all is quiet down here," friends say he thus modestly seeks to depreciate the extent of his activities. For instance, the constable, it is asked, there is "anything doing," doesn't recall that his work for the last half hour may have consisted of routing out a hobo on a nightstand and conducting the occupants out of the limits of the town. An automobile accident, serving warrants and performing a dozen or so other duties. But Niles Constable is quiet, located on the Potomac at its quietest period instead of on Niles creek, so far as police publicity goes.

MODESTO BOY DROWNS

MODESTO, July 7.—Edward W. Magee, 14, was drowned this morning while swimming in Dry creek, near Modesto. He was taken with cramps and sank before his brothers, who were with him, could assist him. The body was recovered after being in the water an hour. Physicians applied the lung motor to the lad and worked over him for an hour, but without results.

FIND MISSING MAN'S BONES

GRAND RAPIDS, Wis., July 7.—The human skeleton found near Pittville is believed by local authorities to be the remains of Alvin Hind. Hind was employed in a lumber camp there about twenty years ago and disappeared one cold night, saying that he was going somewhere else to work. It is said the skull resembles his head in shape.

BISHOP WILL BE GUEST OF CHURCH

Edwin Holt Hughes Soon to Depart for Boston
Bishopric.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes of the Methodist Episcopal church, will be given a farewell reception this evening by the Protestant churches of this city at Grace Methodist church, Twenty-first and Capp streets. Mayor Rolph and Governor Johnson have signified their intention of attending.

Bishop Hughes was transferred by the last general conference of the Methodist church to Boston, where he will hold the office of resident bishop. He leaves a host of friends among the clergy and congregations of the churches of all denominations.

For years he has been prominent in church activities. His last great church work was that of the presidency of the committee of 100, from the Protestant churches during the Exposition year.

Bishop Hughes, before his election to the highest office his church had to offer, was president of DePaul University in Indiana. When appointed as bishop he held the honor of being the youngest ever confirmed by his church. He will be succeeded in San Francisco by Bishop Adna Leonard, who was made bishop in May. He was formerly the head of a large Methodist congregation in Seattle. The departing churchman delivered a farewell address last night at Wesley Methodist church, Hayes and Buchanan streets.

AUTO TRAVELERS REACH SEATTLE

National Commission Members to Stop Along State's Highways.

SEATTLE, July 7.—Escorted by a large number of local automobiles which met them at the outskirts of the city the two automobiles containing the representatives of the National Parks Highway Commission arrived in Seattle last night, thirty-two days out from Chicago, which city they left June 4. The motorists composing the overland party were Frank Guilbert of Spokane, secretary of the National Parks Highway Association; R. S. Phillips of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, L. H. Brown of Spokane, secretary of the Washington State Good Roads Association; James Hoag of Racine, Wis., representing an automobile company, and F. R. Singleton, representing the Seattle Chamber of Commerce. The main object of the trip was to demonstrate the feasibility of the national parks highway, connecting Yellowstone, Glacier and Rainier national parks, as a trans-continent automobile route.

Members of the party said the trip was made according to schedule, stops having been arranged at many towns along the way to give lectures about the highway. The tourists were entertained at dinner tonight at the Arctic Club.

They will go to Tacoma, the end of the tour, tomorrow.

IN DETENTION HOME

George Igial, a 17-year-old boy, known to the police as a probation violator, was taken from the place where he has been living, 2719 Magnolia street, and placed once more into the Detention Home. Inspectors Duffon and Robinson found the lad. The police record shows that he was not working, and an older person probably would have been charged with vagrancy.

Cannibalism in World of Bugs

Develop Dragon Flies to Eat Mosquitos

OROVILLE, July 7.—Dragon flies may solve the mosquito problem in the rice fields, according to a statement made by Professor M. B. Herms of the University of California while visiting here in company with Stanley B. Freeborn.

Herms declares the most feasible control method is the development of a parasite that will eat the mosquitoes. The dragon fly preys upon the mosquitoes, and the larvae of the dragon fly upon the mosquito larvae.

Should the dragon fly experiment fail, it is probable vegetable oils will be experimented with. It is thought vegetable oils can be used to smother the mosquito wrigglers, and yet not injure the rice.

who has been auditing the city's financial books. The commission did not intimate what action it would take on the report.

ENGINE "SWIPES" PASSENGER CARS

Many Injured in Queer Accident in Railroad Yards.

BARSTOW, Cal., July 7.—Fifteen persons were injured in the railroad yards yesterday when Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe passenger train No. 21, westbound, "side-swiped" a switch engine.

Horace Peeler of Needles, Cal., fireman on the switch engine, was the most seriously injured. He suffered cuts about the head and possibly internal injuries.

The switch engine was partially wrecked, but the damage to the passenger train was slight.

The injuries to passengers consisted of scratches and bruises which resulted from being thrown from their seats by the impact.

The accident is believed to have been due to a misunderstanding of signals. The switch engine was approaching the main line from a siding when the passenger train passed at a speed said to have been 18 miles an hour.

GIRL DIES HOLDING SECRET OF SUICIDE

Found in Agony, 18-Year-Old Ida Walters Confesses Only Poison Dose.

SACRAMENTO, July 7.—Refusing, in her dying moments, to give the reason for her act, Ida Walters, an 18-year-old school girl, left a veil of mystery over her suicide. She would admit only that she had taken strychnine and would not talk further. Miss Walters was found by Miss Anna Netzel, who employed her as a domestic in her home at 1921 Twenty-fifth street. Miss Walters resided with her relatives in Oak Park, for whom the authorities are now searching.

Miss Netzel had been out of the house for a short time. On returning she found the girl lying on the floor in agony. After long questioning she obtained the statement that the girl had swallowed a teaspoonful of strychnine.

"Where is the rest of it?" asked Miss Netzel.

"In my purse," the girl replied.

A bottle of the poison was found in her purse later.

Miss Netzel called Miss M. Dryden, a neighbor, and they attempted to gain from the dying girl the reason why she had taken the poison. While refusing to tell, she died.

Shortly afterwards practically all the other employees of the plant quit work demanding similar increases in pay. Operations at the plant have been suspended.

Cocoon Oil Makes a Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulitised cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitised cocoon oil at most any drugstore. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

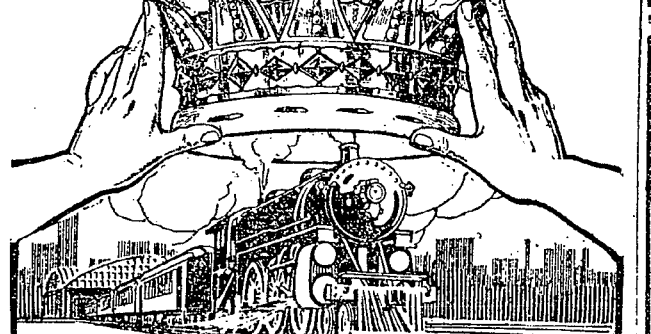

Freckle-Face

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any drugist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the drugist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advertisement.

HOOKEY COP KEEPS BOYS AT STUDIES

Truancy Report Shows
Swimming Hole Is Less
Popular

Shane Files His Figures
With School Board on Attendance

Truancy in the schools is steadily on the decrease, according to C. N. Shane, attendance officer of the Oakland school department. Shane explained that this was the result of constant vigilance, of a more careful system of marking in the classrooms, and of co-operation between the parents and the schools and between the school teachers and the attendance officer.

"HOOKEY COPS." The small boy who desires to "play hookey" finds the road to the old swimming pool down along the estuary or in one of the quarry pits a tortuous one to negotiate. He is beset in his imagination on all sides by "hookey cops," and when he shows up at school the next day the best prepared excuses will not help. The truant officer arrives at his home the following day and the cat is out of the bag. Then the account has to be paid in full.

In actual numbers there were more truants in 1915-1916 than in the previous fiscal year, the numbers being 443 last year and 336 for the fiscal year 1914-1915. But on the basis of the number of children and the number of calls for the attendance officer, the percentage of truancy was lowered by 1 per cent last year and by 2 per cent the year previous.

Sickness caused many absences and Shane has made arrangements for more efficient co-operation between the school and health departments to make possible the granting of permits to return to school more expeditiously where contagious diseases have caused absence than has been the case in the past. Where children cannot go to the health office arrangements will be made to send an inspector to the home, where the permit will be issued.

The report filed by Shane follows: "In order that you may have at hand a basis of comparison I am also including the two years just preceding:

	1915-1916	1914-1915	1913-1914

By far the most prolific source of absence during the year just past has been sickness. As will be seen, more than 1500 visits were due to this cause alone. This could not be prevented. In this connection, however, there are many cases of absence that can be overcome. Children who are out because of contagious diseases less much time between the days they become well and the day of returning to school. It is now necessary for them to go to the health department for a permit to re-enter school. It is safe to say that on an average at least three days are lost in each case between the time when they might return and the time when they get the permit and do return. I have talked it over with the health department and believe that in the future we can arrange for those who cannot afford to go to the health office to have the children visited in their homes and given the permits to go back to school there.

POVERTY. The subject of poverty is practically as stated in a recent report. In the matter of transfers we feel well satisfied with the results. It is becoming so well fixed in the minds of children when they transfer that the department is losing much less than in the past. The truancy division speaks for itself. In 1913-1914 the percentage of calls for truancy based upon the total number of calls made was 10 per cent. In 1914-1915 it was 8 per cent. While in 1915-1916 it was 7 per cent. This showing that the question of truancy is one that we gradually be worked down to a comparatively negligible quantity.

Knights of Pythias Plan Entertainment

Interest is being aroused among the members of Paramount Lodge No. 17, Knights of Pythias, for an entertainment to be staged at the "Castle Hall" next month. The date has not been announced but active preparations are being made in the selection of the cast and in the producing of the drama. B. Ramus, who is well known locally through his dramatic ability, is acting as the producer of the affair.

The play is expected to help in advertising the local order of the Knights of Pythias. Ziegler and Parkinson are also actively engaged in promoting it. The other Pythian lodges on this side of the bay are expected to turn out en masse to witness the play.

William Lovellett, chairman of the social committee, is preparing future entertainments and Past Chancellors John E. Worth, Judge Charles E. Hume and J. P. Parkinson are still continuing their work in taking care of the families of the deceased members.

Hold Man Whose Car Resembles Burglar's

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Because he was driving a cream-colored car which resembled a machine in which a burglar was supposed to be escaping from Comstock, Ore., Attorney Otto Tum Suden of this city spent half an hour in the Roseburg jail. Sheriff Quinn arrested the burglar despite his indignant protest and held him until positive identification had been made through telegraphic communication. Tum Suden is acting through the Pacific Northwest car unit in an automobile tourist party headed by J. C. Flood.

A FOOLISH PROPOSAL.

The TRIBUNE cannot believe that the proposal made by the Superintendent of Parks that the City Hall Plaza be sold as an office building site and that the proceeds be used for purchasing other park sites will receive the serious consideration of the Board of Park Commissioners.

At the time the new city hall site was constructed general regret was expressed by the citizens of Oakland that more land was not obtained. The erection of an office or any other kind of a building on the small triangle in front of the city hall would be a perpetual eyesore, an artistic barbarism, and a foolish and worthless disregard for the reputation of Oakland's good sense.

It cannot be that the proposal will be given serious consideration, either by the Park Commissioners, the City Council or the people of the city.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

The American government has intervened in the affairs of Mexico twice during the last three years. The motives of each were widely different.

That of the first was the personal dislike of President Wilson to General Victoriano Huerta, provisional president of Mexico, and the campaign against him was pursued until he resigned and fled from his country.

The second intervention was launched because President Wilson feared outraged sentiment in the United States would fail longer to tolerate inaction after the massacres of Santa Ysobel and Columbus.

Bloody chaos followed the first intervention and has endured until the present. The condition will succeed the present intervention if we withdraw from Mexico without accomplishing the avowed object for which we entered that country.

President Wilson may be correct in assuming that the anger and heat caused by the invasion of New Mexico has given way to other attractions. He may feel that he can withdraw from Mexico and give in to the demands of Carranza with his dearly-prized political skin only slightly discolored.

We entered Mexico—the intervention has cost us $125,000,000—to clear the entire border district of disorder and make it safe for our citizens who have to live near it. That object should be accomplished, and if the President can take his ear off the political wire long enough to sense his plain duty, it will be. We do not hate war so little as to wish for it to settle the score of daily outrages since the last intervention started, but we do want assurances of safety for the future that do not depend to any extent upon the contemptible word of General Carranza or any officer of the alleged de facto government.

IS THE IRISH QUESTION SETTLED?

David Lloyd George has succeeded in getting adopted a plan for the settlement of the Irish question, but whether it will prove more than a temporary device will remain open to serious doubt until the different views in the British cabinet and parliament are reconciled, if that be possible. Under Mr. Lloyd George's scheme the "home rule" act becomes operative for all of Ireland except the six Ulster counties. These are temporarily excluded, and the Ulster Nationalists, in a conference at Belfast, accepted the exclusion feature. The vote on the proposition was 475 to 265. The sentiment when the conference was called to order was about evenly divided on the question of leaving out the Ulster counties, and, taking account of the large number of delegates who did not vote, it apparently was unchanged at the end of the conference. The eloquence of John Redmond, Joseph Devlin and John Dillon was a large factor behind the affirmative vote.

The opposition to the settlement scheme in England has developed to such proportions as to threaten a disruption of the British cabinet. Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Lord Cromer, the Earl of Halsbury, Lord Middleton and Lord Salisbury have signed a strong manifesto against it. Lord Selbourne has already resigned from the ministry and others indicate they may resign shortly. When Mr. Lloyd George was selected as arbitrator of the delicate situation it was understood that the government would abide by his decision absolutely. Now that the dissatisfaction has developed, Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster Unionists, accuses the opponents of the scheme of not playing fair, in that they did not indicate any objection to the scheme when the negotiations were in progress and their general tenor well known. Carson and other Unionists are noisily asserting their fidelity to the Lloyd George settlement.

Upon the surface the settlement appears, as Lord Cromer and his fellow signers of the manifesto fear, to give a decided impetus to the Sinn Fein party. The Cromer clique seem to think that nothing but military force will suffice to pacify Ireland, and it may be added that they were thinking the same thing fifty years ago. They charge that the settlement is placing a premium on rebellion. Where views conflict with such uncompromising bitterness it is too much to expect that an enduring scheme for conciliation has been devised. The British conservatives seem to value more highly the perpetual subjugation of Ireland than they do the solidarity of the United Kingdom.

ANOTHER REVERSAL OF POLICY.

Another ill-judged act of the early days of the present administration has borne evil consequences that now plague the leaders of the government and seriously embarrass them in the conduct of the nation's foreign relations.

Immediately after Secretary of State John Hay formulated the "open door" policy in China and obtained its acceptance by all the foreign great powers, it became apparent that Japan and the European nations would have to abandon their "spheres of influence" policy. The economic and commercial districting of China among the Old World exploiters could not be carried out in the frank manner in which it had been launched. As a substitute the European nations determined to utilize the hard necessity to which China was put to borrow funds for governmental operations. In a few years several million pounds sterling of loans were made to China, and each loan contract was a virtual concession of theretofore unheard-of advantages to the nationals of the loan powers. If a loan for the construction of a railway was made by a British banking syndicate it was stipulated, in addition to the exorbitant commission demanded by the underwriters for marketing the bonds, that a Britisher should supervise the expenditure of the money borrowed, that all foreigners employed on the construction work should be Englishmen, and that generally all foreign material required should be bought in an English market through English agents. Germany and Austria, France and Belgium adopted an identical procedure.

Realizing that the European governments were exploiting China to the same purpose and in only a slightly different manner as when Mr. Hay intervened, President Taft and Secretary of State Knox, in 1909, appealed to certain New York financiers to enter into competition with the European bankers for the China loan business. The object of Mr. Taft and Mr. Knox was to place the United States in a position to see what was going on in China, to say what should and should not be done to China.

But when Mr. Wilson and Mr. Bryan assumed office they repudiated, with youthful alacrity and demagogic bombast, all that had been accomplished and derisively called it "dollar diplomacy." They gave notice they would not recognize any interests the bankers might establish in the Far East, and the bankers had to withdraw from the field.

Since then China has made several requests for financial assistance, but has been turned down, because the American bankers cannot overcome the scheming opposition of the Japanese government unless the American government will stand behind them, at least to the extent of approving their ventures. Within the last few days a representative of the Chinese government has asked for a loan of $30,000,000. The bankers, according to custom, referred him to President Wilson for an explanation of their inability to accommodate him.

As a result, Mr. Wilson has sent an official of the State Department to the New York bankers to make the same appeal Mr. Taft made in 1909. He has changed his views about "dollar diplomacy" and finds it the sole means by which the interests of the United States in the Far East may be preserved. He also apparently realizes that in no other way can America be in a position to checkmate Japan and Europe in their schemes of aggression in China.

We do not censure him for his new attitude, but we do charge him with the loss of the last three years and his causeless repudiation of a sound foreign policy to which a previous administration had pledged the government. We recognize with regret the hypocrisy of refusing encouragement to financial investments in China and at the same time championing the trading schemes of Son-in-Law McAdoo in South America. We shall place this record alongside that of the repudiation of the Taft non-partisan tariff commission in order that Mr. Wilson might himself recommend the creation of a similar body.

NOTES and COMMENT

The joy juggernaut vied with the deadly fire cracker last Tuesday. Indeed, statistics to date show it to be ahead.

"Ice cream, limburger and beer kill a man." The item is rather interesting, but is robbed of its element of surprise. What did the unfortunate man expect?

The promptness by which previously unknown relatives of the late Hetty Green materialized was no surprise. Sometimes such persons wait till after the funeral, however.

Mexican notes promise to be prolonged just as indefinitely as were the German, but they never can have the significance. It will probably be found that they have no significance at all.

"Bayless and Woolums bolster up Salt Lake." It may be surmised that this is fan talk and refers to baseball; but even so, "Woolums" is a delightful addition to the nomenclature of the game.

"Citizens of United States do not need passports." Refers to traveling in Canada. Over the reverse border one may need them in theory, but is pretty sure to find them of little avail in practice.

One of the counts of a San Francisco woman who seeks a divorce for cruelty is that the defendant refuses to wear his wedding ring. Such unspeakable cruelty as that must be accounted sufficient grounds.

The lone bandit on the road to Yosemite who stood up five automobile stages loaded with passengers pretty nearly gets the record. In fact, we do not remember previously reading of a single man holding up more than three at a time.

The accounts of the United States naval officer who was assailed at the port of Santa Rosalia, Mexico, and ordered to salute the Mexican flag, indicates the spirit that prevails in the country that will finally have to be taken seriously in hand.

The new gasoline pump that measures the petrol that you buy for your machine has great opportunity; and one down in San Bernardino has been caught at it. You don't have much of a show against a measuring machine that goes by turning a crank.

We note the precaution of the San Francisco police in searching strike-breakers for weapons when they quit work. They have unpleasant habits of using guns rather than to be beaten up, but if they do not have such weapons everything passes off safely.

Colonel Roosevelt is dissatisfied with the peace prospects in Mexico. It is laid to politics in his case, but a good many believe that any peace based upon promises or representations is a mere postponement of the inevitable, which will be more serious the oftener they are permitted to figure.

The suffragette who undertook to "heckle" the President in his fourth of July oration was doing what is customary in England in political campaigns, which the American spirit of fair play has never tolerated. A boor is able from the impersonal ambush of a crowd to greatly embarrass and even insult a gentleman where such practice is permitted.

We read and know that California is the great fruit State of the Nation, but some of us are nonplussed and chagrined when we make effort to buy the superior article. Then, when we read of the yields that are not harvested because of lack of a profitable market, we are again surprised. It is one of the astonishing things that fruit can not be got from producer to consumer on terms that the one can well afford to pay and the other to accept.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

It is not hard to understand why there is a revival of interest in manufacturing sugar when it is read that the Cuban American Sugar Company's output this year will be 1,500,000 bags at a net profit of $5 a bag, or $9,000,000.—Chico Enterprise.

The longer the present board of trustees hold office the more it is the conviction that the members are devoting unusual time and attention to their tasks and displaying a conscientiousness toward the duties they have shouldered away beyond the average.—San Leandro Standard.

BARBARITY.

The return of twenty-three American soldiers—naked, robbed, some of them wounded, nearly all of them with the marks of thongs on their bodies—certainly does not constitute reparation for the wrong and outrage of the Carrizal attack. On the other hand (the original Mexican offense remaining just what it was) the condition of these brave soldiers is an aggravation of the outrage. It proves conclusively that we are not dealing with a civilized power or authority when we deal with Senor Carranza and those who act under his orders. Civilized men do not strip, rob and maltreat brave soldiers who have fallen into their hands. The treatment of those men of the Tenth Cavalry is bandit work, and those who have been guilty of it have classed themselves definitely with the Villistas, Zapatas and other outragers of law and decency.

NORWAY TO BUILD SHIPS
IN OAKLANDFirst Craft Is Ordered—
More to Be ConstructedCity Is Made Center of
Great Water
Deal

With one 7000-ton vessel under construction at the Moore & Scott shipyards in Oakland and two 9000-ton vessels being built in Portland, R. Stolt-Nielsen, one of the leading shipping men in the world, with headquarters at Haugesund, Norway, is planning what will probably be the most extensive shipbuilding program ever launched by a single firm on the Pacific Coast. The Oakland ship, as soon as completed, will be loaded for London, and another will be started. How many ships will be built by the Norwegian multi-millionaire has not been decided. He is planning to have vessels built as fast as yards are ready to take contracts, and is planning one of the most remarkable fleets of freight steamers in the world.

The details of the extensive plan were confirmed this morning by Captain D. G. Dietrichson, who is in Oakland superintending the construction of the vessel now on the ways, and which he will assume command of. Captain Dietrichson is one of the best known master mariners. He has traveled to every port in the world, run ships through blockades during the present war to every port of call, has visited England, France and Germany during the war and has succeeded in carrying cargoes to all ports in safety. He was held by the Germans for several days on one of his trips, but released when it was discovered that his Norwegian government papers were correct.

LOUISA STOLT.

The vessel being constructed in Oakland will be known as the Louisa Stolt, and will be a first-class steel freighter, equipped with wireless and every facility of modern shipping. It was started by the Ralph Coal and Navigation Company and sold to the Norwegian shipping man. The framework has already been constructed and September 1 will see the vessel launched if work progresses as it has.

"The ship industry today is the greatest in the world and has been ever since the war started," declared Captain Dietrichson. "The shipbuilders are having ships built wherever they can, for there is more demand than there are facilities for big ship construction. Anything that has to do with the water seems to be on the ascendant and realizing this Stolt-Nielsen is becoming a power in the navigation world. It means much for this coast, of course, because he has been able to get ships started here, and his trial trip personally.

ELEANOR GATES IN LAW'S TANGLE
DIVORCE DECREES WORRY AUTHORSeeks Annulment of Match With
Moore

Evidence in the form of an authenticated copy of an interlocutory decree of divorce obtained in Alameda county January 7, 1914, by Florence R. Moore from Frederick F. Moore, who is now a magazine editor in New York, will be introduced in the suit now pending at White Plains, N. Y., brought by Mrs. Eleanor Gates Moore, formerly wife of Richard Walton Tully, playwright, in an attempt to secure annulment of her marriage to Moore, which took place in the East in October, 1914, before his final decree had been entered in the local courts. With the filing of the suit by Mrs. Moore it has now come to light that for some time past she has not been living with her second husband, her explanation being that she "did not desire to continue their relations" under the existing conditions. The conditions were that when the married couple's final divorce decree from Richard Walton Tully had not been granted and Moore's final decree had not been granted his wife in Berkeley. At the time of the marriage she understood that the ceremony was legal, being performed in another state from that in which the two divorces were granted.

WAS "GROUCHY." Moore is himself an author of some note. His first wife was a Fresno girl whom he married at the home of her parents there on August 25, 1906. But within two weeks after the wedding while they were still living in Fresno and subsequently in their home at 1229 Grove street, Berkeley, she alleged that he began to show a "grouchy" disposition.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Robert W. Stevens, director of music at the Chicago University, found a new use for the human nose today—smelling music.

FOR WHALING. "The whaling industry is another big industry right now, with whale oil going up nearly 200 per cent. Oakland, I understand, is to profit heavily in this business through a firm planning to make this city its base in whaling work. Your Alaska Packers are another big factor here. The big ship will be launched by the owner of the vessel himself, according to present plans, as he plans to come to the coast to inspect his ships and send the Oakland vessel on its trial trip personally.

becoming peevish over household affairs. Once, she said, when she asked him to pay the coal bill on his way up town he replied that he would do it "when he got good and ready." Also, she testified, he forbade her talking to her neighbors because they made too much noise. Finally, she related, her husband mortgaged their furniture, and in February, 1913, left her and went to New York, where he later married Mrs. Tully. In the interlocutory decree of January,

OAKLAND FIRST IS
AUGUST'S SLOGANMerchants Plan Celebration for Week of Boosting Home Goods.

Definite plans for the "Try Oakland First" week celebration, to be conducted in Oakland under the joint auspices of the Manufacturers and New Industries Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Exchange, were made last night at the meeting of the Manufacturers' Committee.

The celebration will be held in August, and will be in the nature of an educational movement to show to the people of Oakland what its merchants and industries have to offer. It will in no sense be an attempt to force Oakland in any way upon the people, but to show in any way possible to the people of Oakland what its merchants and industries have to offer. It will educate the people in what they can buy in their own county and in their own state, according to the plan outlined last night by Chairman John W. Phillips of the Manufacturers' Committee.

A big parade, street illumination, concert by an Alameda county chorus under the direction of Alexander Stewart, plans for a uniform system of window dressing for all Oakland stores during the week, co-operative advertising urging the claims of home industry on the people, and other features are planned for the week. The campaign will be handled by an organization to be formed after the fashion of a military system. The command will be in the hands of the general staff, consisting of John W. Phillips, Theodore Schlueter, D. E. Graves, Irving Kahn, John P. Maxwell, Charles Monroe, A. E. Carter, Carl Sword, Joseph B. Calne and W. H. Barry.

Under the staff will be captains representing every form of industry. These will have charge of the activities of retailers, wholesalers, manufacturers, professional men and other branches. Under the captains, picked workers will carry out plans.

Meetings will be held next week to appoint the captains for the campaign.

Deputies to Explain
Why They Fired Shot

MARTINEZ, July 7. Because they took a shot at ex-Mayor J. W. McClellan and four other well known men of this town last Sunday, three deputies of the fish and game commission will have an opportunity of explaining the matter to the court. Warrants have been issued for Tom Duncan of Clayton, who was arrested, and Deputies Bundoek of Vallejo and Clary, sent to be of Oakland. The sheriff telephoned to the fish and game commission and advised the officials that warrants had been issued for the men, and received a reply to the effect that they would be on hand when the case is called.

The game deputies are alleged to have fired several shots in the direction of the Martinez party and then started to search them, but did not show their stars until it was demanded of them by the men arrested.

1914, signed by Superior Judge Wasto, Mrs. Moore No. 1 was awarded $100 a month permanent alimony, the order still being in force, and the custody of her 4-year-old daughter.

Subsequently Tully, the playwright, married Miss Gladys C. Hanna of Toronto a year ago. Eleanor Gates Tully had married Moore within two months of her divorce from Tully. She and her second husband formed a publishing company and made their home in Riverside drive, N. Y.

MARRIED AT COLLEGE. Mrs. Tully is best known as Eleanor Gates, the author of "The Poor Little Rich Girl." She married Tully while they were both students at the University of California. Tully was the author of "The Bachelor," "The Bird of Paradise," "Omar, the Tentmaker" and other plays. The differences between her and her literary wife were more of a "temperamental" nature than otherwise, he explained.

Frederick Moore has to his credit "The Devil's Admiral" and other novels. He is at present editor of the Arctosy in New York.

County Clerk George E. Gross today mailed an authenticated copy of the interlocutory decree to Attorney Spoorwood and Connolly of Port Chester, N. Y., who represent the second Mrs. Moore in her annulment proceedings. It is understood in Alameda from New York that the Moore's intend to re-marry in New York when their marital tangle has been straightened out by the courts.

Boy Chooses to
Die With Mother"I Want to Go Too," Lad Says

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—"Mamma is dead and I wanted to die with her," is the excuse sixteen-year-old James Saint Dizier gave yesterday for his attempt at suicide, after he had been rushed to St. Catherine's hospital at Santa Monica, California.

James and his mother moved into 24 Dudley avenue, Venice, about a week ago. It is thought they came from Los Angeles. Mrs. Saint Dizier was in a driving condition. She passed away about 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

A few minutes later James went into the bathroom of the apartment where there was a medicine chest. Shortly afterwards he was found in a semi-conscious condition on the water front by Officer Carrillo, who rushed him to the hospital. The father is said to be in France, where he has financial interests.

Julien Liebes Will
Probated by Widow

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—The will of Julien Liebes, of the firm of H. Liebes & Company, who was drowned in the surf at Long Beach July 2, filed for probate by his widow, Mrs. Sophie Liebes, leaves an estate valued at $21,300 to her, with the provision that she look out for the interests of the two minor sons, George Julien, aged 14, and Martin Liebes, aged 12. The will asks that the remains be cremated, providing that Mrs. Liebes is willing.

The property consists of the Liebes home, 1701 Broadway, which is valued at $10,000; 787 shares of stock of H. Liebes & Company, $10,000, and cash in bank, $1300.

Mrs. Liebes' application to be appointed administratrix will be heard before Superior Judge Graham July 24.

Railway Case Against
Davie Again Postponed

Hearing of the action brought by W. L. Chamberlain in behalf of the People of the State of California against Mayor John L. Davie, seeking to oust him from office for alleged failure to enforce the city ordinances in connection with the operation of the Key Route cars over Twelfth street, went over for two weeks when the matter was called before Superior Judge J. J. Tamm.

Behind the action is the contention of the Downtown Property Owners' Association that Mayor Davie is holding up a settlement of the Key Route controversy through failure to sign an agreement entered into by the association which would permit the railway company to install a "switchback" in Twelfth street between Franklin and Webster streets.

Experts "Caught" in Long-Distance Chase

After a lively chase by telephone, J. A. Waag and Ralph Tierney, accounting experts for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, were "caught" by wire last night and today are back in Oakland after a trip to Los Angeles and every station along the line until they were finally located.

The two experts are auditing the telephone system's books on the Pacific coast. They were ordered from their headquarters in the Hotel Touraine to Los Angeles, and after they had started, the orders were changed.

With $1826.25 on hand as the nucleus for a fund for the relief and care of dependents of members of the National Guard, Oakland is expressing in a tangible form its appreciation of the patriotism and loyalty of the men who are encamped on the Mexican border for the protection of the frontier against the uncertain attitude of the southern republic.

The following contributions have been received by the Chamber of Commerce committee on military affairs:

FOUR MONTHS' SERVICE. It is probable that the militia forces will be kept in service for at least four months, unless a definite cessation of Mexican disturbances is assured. During this time the families of guardsmen whose regular income has been cut off will be the victims of economic pressure, and it is the duty of Oakland citizens to relieve this situation. Some firms have guaranteed the continuance of salaries to such of their employees as are in the ranks, but this can not be done in all instances.

The Alameda City Council has agreed to co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce in looking after the families of the members of G. Company and in the despatch of various comforts to the troops on the border. Other bay cities are engaged in the same work.

COMMITTEES WORK. A sub-committee, headed by Walter H. Leimert, is engaged in enrolling subscriptions, and another committee under Mrs. Mark L. Regan has charge of the distribution of money and supplies. Every citizen of Oakland can do his part in helping this committee.

The Chamber of Commerce committee is composed of Victor H. Metcalf, Stuart S. Hawley, G. E. Daniels, B. A. Forrester and Dr. A. S. Kelly.

Firms who have guaranteed regular salaries to guardsmen employees during their service are: The Tribune, Ross Bros., the Cold Drug Company, the Goodrich Rubber Company, the American Tobacco Company, P. Lorillard Company, Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and the White House and the United Railroads of San Francisco.

BOAT WINS RACE
FOR GIRL'S LIFEMakes Record Run in China
Seas That Operation May Be Performed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—With the life of a girl at stake, the steamer Empress of Russia ran a race from Nagasaki to Manila and won. The girl was Miss Natalie Campbell, niece of Major and Mrs. Sidney Cloman and the trip was made in forty-six hours, a record for the run.

Miss Campbell was stricken by acute appendicitis, just out of Nagasaki, en route from Vancouver to the Philippines to join her uncle and aunt. Facilities for the serious operation that was necessary were lacking, so orders were given by the captain of the Empress of Russia to travel as fast as possible to Manila in an effort to save the girl's life.

The steamer maintained a speed of twenty knots an hour and made the trip in forty-six hours, arriving at the goal in record time. All port regulations were dispensed with and within an hour Miss Campbell had been successfully operated upon. The story of the race was brought here by Mr. and Mrs. Leigh S. Smith, who returned from Manila on the Empress of Russia by way of Vancouver.

WORTH RYDER
MAY SUCCEED
PROF. HARSHEYoung Berkeley Painter
Mentioned as New Art
CuratorPainter Faculty Member of College City Crafts School

Worth Ryder, one of the best known of the younger artists in the east bay colony, seems likely to be appointed by the board of library directors to succeed Robert R. Harshe as curator of the museum and art gallery. Ryder's qualifications for the position were urged by numerous persons at a meeting of the library board last evening. Final action was deferred to a later date.

Most enthusiastic urging of Ryder for the position came from members of the California Art Association, who were in attendance and to whose number Ryder belongs. Especially emphatic in his behalf was Professor Frederick V. Meyer of the art department of the Oakland schools and Principal of the California School of Arts and Crafts at Berkeley, of the faculty of which Ryder is a member.

Ryder is peculiarly a product of the east bay section. His home for many years has been in Berkeley, where he was graduated from the Berkeley High school and where he attended the University of California in the class of 1909. Subsequently he went to the Continent to complete his education. He studied for five years in Paris, Berlin and Munich, most of the time at the German centers. Returning, he was elected to the faculty of the California School of Arts and Crafts, where he conducts life classes.

The former curator was among those who appreciated Ryder's qualifications for the position and expected that the Berkeley instructor might succeed him. The assistant position of curator of the natural science division is also to be conferred, and Paul Fair, a Stanford graduate of recent years, has been suggested by Harshe and others for the position.

Numerous Divorce Complaints Before Local Courts This Month.

Denial of the accusation made by her husband that she had threatened him with a revolver and had deserted him is made today in a cross-complaint filed by Hazel Hortense Fletcher in the action for divorce brought against her recently by Benjamin C. Fletcher, a druggist. Mrs. Fletcher also denies that she was ever infatuated with Don Fish or that she had kept up a correspondence with him for several years.

In her cross-complaint she alleges that her husband, although he has a business worth $15,000, has failed to provide for her in a proper way and that he has deserted her. The couple were married in Alameda in February, 1905. There are no children.

Elizabeth Wilkinson wants a divorce from Harry D. Wilkinson on the grounds that he threw bricks and shoes at her and that he threatened to shoot one of their children if he did not stop crying.

In a sealed complaint Cora H. Platt is seeking a divorce from Ralph H. Platt whom she charges with various degrees of cruelty. The couple resided in Benvenue avenue, Berkeley.

Allegations of a nature which she seeks to keep from the public are brought by Leona V. Harris against James H. Harris from whom she seeks a divorce on the grounds of cruelty.

Ana Saba wants a decree from George J. Saba, a tailor, on the grounds that he has failed to provide for her in a proper manner.

U. S. Packers in South American Field

WASHINGTON, July 7.—At the final hearing of the House sub-committee on the Pacific resolution, asking for an investigation of the beef trust by a federal commission, a petition was presented by 125 members of the House urging the judiciary committee to report the resolution favorably immediately. It is understood the resolution will be reported in time for the House to act on it next week.

Besides complaint that packers have manipulated prices, Representative Borah, in a final statement prepared for the committee, declared American packers are building up a line of packing houses in South America and Australia, enabling them to fix even export prices.

"Packers are in control of the great grain companies which furnish money to farmers for the feeding and fattening of cattle," said Borah. "They also have in their grasp a number of subsidiary activities, such as the cotton seed oil mills which supply oil cakes for feeding purposes and cold storage plants. This investigation should be undertaken with a view, of course, to enforcing the criminal laws, but more especially for discovery of better economic methods and remedial legislation which will make the industry of the widest possible benefit to the country."

INDIAN DANCER WINS TITLE.

GORDON, Neb., July 7.—The second annual Indian congress came to a close here after one of the most successful sessions yet held. Besides the Pine Ridge Sioux Indians, many were here from Rosebud, Yankton and other Sioux reservations. The most notable affair of the congress was the winning of the Indian fencing championship of the world by Thomas Red Blanket. Besides the thousands of Indians present there were thousands of white people here to watch the American Indian at his play.

HEAVY COINAGE REPORTED.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—The report of coinage at the local mint for the fiscal year, ended June 30, by Robert Clark, superintendent of coinage, shows that 155,101,312 pieces, representing a value of $4,384,576, were turned out. Of this total, 46,032,882 pieces valued at $2,642,387 were for foreign account.

SIR EDWARD GREY.

LONDON, July 7.—It is understood that the report that Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, is to be raised to the peerage is correct, and that, in fact, he already has accepted an offer. A baronetcy of the United Kingdom probably will be conferred upon him.

SHOT AT CROW, LOST A TOE.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., July 7.—George Xell, a farmer of Jeffersonville, took his gun and went out to shoot crows when he was raising his cornfield. As he was about to raise his gun to fire at a crow the weapon went off, sending the charge into his foot and shooting off one of his toes, besides badly injuring his foot. The farmer then harnessed his team and drove several miles to have a surgeon dress the wound.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Cass H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines. It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Cass H. Fletcher.

THE P. F. DALLEY CO. LTD., BUFFALO, N. Y.

MRS. J. J. McGUIRE, AN ATTRACTIVE YOUNG MATRON OF BERKELEY SOCIETY, WHO IS A DEVOTEE OF THE SEASON'S SPORT—ICE SKATING.

HOTEL OAKLAND is housing temporarily a pathetic group of "summer bachelors." You can pick them at a glance by their doleful look—some of them. Here are a few who seem not to mind it much: Searles, Joseph O'Donnell, J. Lombardi, E. F. Kraft and H. T. Hall.

A navy man is waiting at Colon for his bride. She sailed yesterday, and the ship is due at the Panama port on the 22nd, when the entire navy set—some twenty strong—will turn out to greet the young woman who is coming to be one of them. Yesterday Miss Lulotte Jenness and her mother, Mrs. Herbert J. Jenness of Berkeley, left for New Orleans by way of Los Angeles. They will take the steamer from New Orleans on July 15.

The day after their arrival, Lieutenant Robert Rowe Thompson, U. S. S. Charleston, will claim his bride.

The service will be performed by an old friend of the groom, in a cunning little chapel, where the exiles worship when they worship. And a picturesque little ceremony it will be.

The bride will wear the traditional accoutrements of brides, all white. And the guests, as is the custom in all tropical countries, will wear the same cool colors. But special distinction will be lent to the affair by the embellishments that differentiate naval officers from the rest of the human herd.

The tropical setting will do the rest to fill the picture.

The young people will make their home at Christobal, the lovely little settlement just off the mainland, where service people and the government officials have their summer residence.

Mrs. Jenness plans to return in September.

Miss Bernice Taylor, whose engagement to Cheever John Roberts was announced recently, was hostess to a spirited little house party at the Taylor place near Los Gatos. She and her guests returned to town yesterday.

The date of her wedding has not been set, depending upon the possibility of her father's departure for the East.

Mrs. Alice McKaye Kelly, known to her friends through an amusing anecdote as "Good morning Mrs. Kelly," is visiting Miss Anne Morgan in New York.

Mrs. Kelly is a most unusual woman, having done a larger service for the United States government in pacifying the head-hunting Igorrotes than all Uncle Sam's fighting men. She taught them, instead of shooting them; and they grew to trust and love her. In fact, one little girl she had looked after from a baby, refused to be left behind when Mrs. Kelly found it necessary to leave the Philippines to save what remnants of health she had left after twelve years in the tropics.

The little one refused absolutely to be left behind. She wept and wouldn't eat and swore she would die if Mrs. Kelly wouldn't take her, although her parents lived in the village.

Nothing was to be done but take her along.

During Mrs. Kelly's visit in San Francisco through the Exposition, the girl was her shadow, serving her mistress with the most amazing devotion.

MRS. WYLIE WINS DIVORCE DECREE

Old Elopement Story Revived in Suit Filed for Separation.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Mrs. Katherine V. H. Wylie has filed suit in the District Supreme Court for an absolute divorce from Horace Wylie whose would-be elopement with Mrs. Eleanor Hichborn six years ago caused a stir in society circles in the capital. In her petition Mrs. Wylie declares that when Wylie disappeared from Washington in 1910 he left a written confession that he had eloped with Mrs. Hichborn. The latter's husband, John E. Hichborn, committed suicide here in 1912. The petition says further that Wylie returned to the United States twice to attempt a reconciliation, leaving the last time in September, 1911, a message that his separation was final and that he must go back and live permanently with the co-respondent.

The Wylies were married in 1895 and have four children.

Sign Painter in Bad; Work Too Realistic

DAILY, Mich., July 7.—The remarkable genius of Joshua Tripe, the village sign painter, may result in a suit for damages being brought against the village. Tripe a few days ago completed a neat course in sign painting, and to show his skill painted a board fence on the side of a barn standing along the main street. It looked so natural that several farmers have skinned their backs trying to hitch their teams to it, and even birds have attempted to light on it, slipping down the sides of the barn to the ground and flying away in disgust.

The climax came, however, when Tripe's building chased a stranger down the street, who, in trying to get away, attempted to jump the supposed fence and nearly knocked his brains out.

SETTLE 20-YEAR LITIGATION.
ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 7.—After litigation extending over a period of twenty years and involving court proceedings in several states, the Gilbert Hopkins case to determine title to timber lands in North Carolina and Tennessee, valued at $1,500,000, has just been settled by a compromise decree entered in the federal district court here. The terms were not made public. W. H. Peets of New Orleans and Lyman Gilbert of New York were joint owners of the land at the outbreak of the civil war. Fearing forfeiture of his holdings, Gilbert conveyed his title to Peets. After the war the Gilbert heirs instituted the litigation. Their claims were recognized by the Peet heirs, but intervening purchasers disputed them.

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, or if you are too weak or your system, or if you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to Drug Dept. Kahn's, Broadway, San Pablo and Sixteenth street, or any good druggist and get a box of Oil of Kadin capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

note weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body.

It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.

Easiest Way to Remove Ugly Hairy Growths

THREATS FLY AT BOARD SESSION

"I'll Throw You Out," Shouts Fogarty to Attorney; Dared to.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Verbal fire-crackers cracked last night at the meeting of the board of fire commissioners when John T. Fogarty, president of the board, touched off a fuse in the shape of a remark which ordered Harry A. Mackenzie, attorney for Frank J. Dillon, a hydrant man, to sit down or be thrown out of the room.

Dillon is a brother of former Fire Commissioner George Dillon. Charges of assaulting himself from his district against Dillon were being aired last night when Mackenzie objected to evidence of Fire Chief Thomas H. Murphy as hearsay.
"Sit down or I'll throw you out," shouted President Fogarty.
"You can't do it," retorted Mackenzie.
"If you don't shut up I'll throw you out even if I have to call out the fire department to help me," countered Fogarty.
"You and your whole fire department can't throw him out," shouted Nathan Coghlan, associate counsel for Dillon.
"Gentlemen! Gentlemen!" cautioned Fire Commissioner Tillman R. Herring in an off-on-troubled-words voice.
That ended the verbal pyrotechnics. Dillon's case was taken under advisement after he had been on the witness stand four hours. His friends claim the charges against him are a frameup.

LET OF COLLEGE MAIDS ARE WRONG

Need Changing of Shoe Styles
Is Declaration of Medical Examiner.

BERKELEY, July 7.—Little Billee would have a harder time among the women of the University of California Summer Session than Diogenes. Maids who could live with his Trilby are few and far between in Berkeley this month. There is something the matter with the feet of 53 per cent of the women in the session.

For this statement Dr. Bertha Stuart of the department of hygiene is authority. Moreover, she declares that the feet of Western women in general are defective. She believes the Chinese, scorned for binding their women's feet, may derive much criticism of American women for their feet of shoeed slaves.

High-heeled, pointed shoes are to blame, said Dr. Stuart today. They cause the weight of the body to fall upon the inside of the foot instead of upon the outside, where it belongs. The physician continued:

"In all the cases I have examined this year, only one young woman had absolutely straight feet. Of twelve women examined in one clinic in this session, ten had broken arches. This proportion, 83 per cent, is typical of a condition among Western college women in my experience. I hope that the college women's idea that small, pinched, hobbled feet are artistic will wear out as did the idea that small, pinched waists were proper."

The conditions here are on a par with those found at the College and the University of Oregon. But there the women are now all wearing low-heeled shoes, probably having heard of the danger that their feet were not made larger by nature than was absolutely necessary.

"Did you ever notice babies' feet? Their toes point straight out. That is the way toes are meant to grow, and yet in all the cases I have examined this year only one young woman had an absolutely straight foot. The shoes should fit the feet, not the feet fit the shoes."

TROOPERS EAT ICE CREAM.
ALAMEDA, July 7.—Moving pictures of Company G, taken at Sacramento, are to be exhibited at the Alameda school tomorrow. Captain C. P. Magagnoli has written home as his troop train was passing over the Mojave desert that his company is well and happy, but finds the desert heat a big change from the San Francisco climate. No cream in wholesale quantities is consumed by the soldiers in an effort to keep cool.

Exempt Firemen's Home Proving White Elephant Property to Be Sold Providing Inmates Do Not Oppose Step

BERKELEY, July 7.—The Exempt Firemen's Home at Monte Rio, established some years ago for the former fire fighters of this city, is proving a white elephant on the hands of City Assessor Harry J. Squires, who is responsible for its well-being. The home of twelve comfortable rooms has been built at a cost of $125,000 and is in fact, there are very few of them to use it. The property has been a financial drain through lack of care and it has on occasions failed to pay because of unpaid taxes.

Squires, the late Chief James Kennedy, Chief G. Sydney Rose, Battalion Chief George Heggarty and a few others have saved it from time to time when the collector exacted too much pressure. Now Squires has an offer of $125,000 for the property and is trying to learn if the exempt firemen will let it badly enough to oppose the sale.

That it be sold and the proceeds used as a nucleus for a relief fund for injured and retired firemen is the course urged by Squires and others. It is proposed to found a fund to help with the wages of the firemen of which all who join shall pay a small amount monthly. Squires is anxious to hear from the exempt firemen as to whether they will be eligible for membership in regard to the proposed sale and association.

S. F. GROCER GIVEN 30-DAY SENTENCE

Trouble at Alameda Beach
Causes Spahis' Conviction.

ALAMEDA, July 7.—Nicholas Spahis, San Francisco grocer, convicted of carrying a concealed weapon after trouble at an Alameda bathing place, was given a thirty-day jail sentence by Police Judge L. R. Weinmann this morning. Spahis' conduct at the beach led to complaint being made to the management by women patrons. When Spahis was ordered off the premises he refused to go and was bit a pistol. He gave $50 cash bail to secure his freedom. The court refused to put him in jail and inflicted the county jail sentence.

Takeuchi, a Japanese of Oakland, guilty of having no lights on automobile, was fined $10.

Mrs. May Brothers, guilty of being in possession of a pistol, was given six months' probation.

Joseph Garcia was given sixteen days in the city prison for being drunk.

Complete Study of History of Spain

BERKELEY, July 7.—C. C. Leebrecht, former secretary of the University of California Alumni Association, has returned from Seville, Spain, after a year of research into sources of California history as a traveling fellow on the Native Sons Foundation. He will be a public relations assistant in California history at the university and will not return to his continental studies.

He will be succeeded there by Tracy E. Kittredge who has been with the American Relief Commission in Belgium. Leebrecht made the passage in a British ship from Gibraltar. The vessel was delayed for several days because enemy submarines were lurking off the coast. He declares that five of the divers were captured during this period of waiting.

People's Orchestra
Heard at University

BERKELEY, July 7.—Summer session students at the University of California attended in large number this afternoon at the Greek Theater to hear the People's Orchestra, a group of students given by the San Francisco People's Orchestra and Harold Fraicht, and Miss Clark Cowles, soloists at the opening of the series of four affairs which have been planned for this month. An interesting program was well presented and much appreciated.

Pracht was heard to good effect in the role of Hieron in Massenet's opera, "Herodias." Miss Cowles played Saint-Saens' brilliant concerto in G minor for the piano with considerable ability. The orchestra presented a variety of short numbers under the direction of John Minetti.

Contracts Awarded
by Berkeley Council

BERKELEY, July 7.—Ordinances awarding contracts for the installation of sidewalks, the construction of concrete walks and gravel roads and the grading of grounds for the Luther Burbank, Garfield and Frances Willard schools were adopted at a meeting of the city council today.

No protests were received pertaining to the contracts. Keith Avenue from the Hopkins terrace east and north to the city line and such action was ordered taken. Communications of a minor nature were read and discussed.

Accusation.

MARTINEZ, July 7.—After spending the night in the women's wing of the county jail here, which was turned over for his use, Rev. Peter H. Petersen, Richmond minister and reformer, accused of offering to accept a bribe from Grace Miller, keeper of a resort, was ready today to face habeas corpus proceedings.

A writ of habeas corpus was issued at the time Petersen surrendered himself to Sheriff R. R. Veale yesterday, releasing his bondsman. This was set to be returned before Judge G. M. McKenzie and Judge R. H. Laitner. The specific statement in the writ is that it was not shown in any action on record that the minister had committed any specific crime.

Petersen was driven to Martinez yesterday by his attorneys and surrendered to Will Veale. Veale declared that he did not wish to place the pastor in a regular cell and offered him the freedom of his office. Later the women's wing, being vacant, was turned over to the pastor's use. Petersen appeared to be in excellent spirits, and declared that so far he was not worried.

H. C. Conner, leader of the Good Government League, of Richmond, under the auspices of which Petersen conducted crusades and attacks on the redlight district before his arrest, accompanied the pastor to Martinez, as did also J. O. Black, a Richmond merchant, also a leader in the reform crusades the minister directed.

Movements in the minister's behalf have arisen in several parts of the county. At the Danville church resolutions have been passed expressing sympathy for the pastor, who declares that the charges are the result of a "frame up."

Efforts yesterday to have Roy Kramer and Frank Standford, the policemen who arrested Petersen, reinstated in the Richmond force, failed when the council refused to reconsider their action in dismissing the men.

Richmond to Abolish Business License Fee

RICHMOND, July 7.—Business tax licenses in this city will practically be eliminated under an amended ordinance agreed upon at a conference today between the city council and members of the Richmond Merchant Association. The new law will go into effect at once and under its provisions only such places as pool halls and theaters will be taxed. The license upon permanent places of business, the license upon backstreet stocks and one-day "merchants" was not removed.

Under the old law the city collected about $8000 annually from business men. It was claimed that very little profit came from itinerant merchants and peddlars was afforded.

Principal's Fight

BLK GROVE, July 7.—Miss Webb, county superintendent of schools, has appointed the following new board of trustees for the Elk Grove Union high school:

Stanley Gago, George Ehrhardt, J. L. Schulze, Lester B. Johnston and George Nesche.

The board has not yet organized, but it is expected to do so at once and to name teachers for the new term.

The appointment of the new board was made necessary through the fact that all the members of the old board resigned "for the good of the community," after a bitter fight that began over the question of whether Principal Smith, who held the position several terms, should be re-elected.

The old trustees resigned with the understanding that the county superintendent of schools appoint five new ones, none of the old ones, nor any of those who have been active in the recent skirmish to be eligible for appointment. The principal also resigned.

Scott Still in Office Must Await Release

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—In spite of his announcement of a month ago to the effect that he would leave his office on July 1, J. J. Scott is still collector of Internal Revenue for this district. He said yesterday that the Secretary of the Treasury would not permit him to resign until the business of the last fiscal year shall have been completely cleared up. Scott is under a bond of $250,000 and every penny collected must be accounted for before the bond can be released. Scott said there are still 1500 corporations who have not paid their taxes in spite of the fact that the fiscal year closed June 30. Income taxes to the number of 4000 are also in arrears. The corporations' taxes must be paid before the tenth of this month to escape a penalty of 5 per cent.

Former Minister to China Is Stricken

CHICAGO, July 7.—William J. Calhoun, noted lawyer and former minister to China, is suffering from a partial stroke of paralysis at the home of his law partner, Will H. Lyford, near Wheaton. Although his condition is not considered dangerous by Dr. J. B. Murphy, who is attending him, he admitted his patient is too ill to be moved.

FEDERAL PROBE MAY BE CALLED

Much Evidence Now in Hands of Judiciary Sub-Committee.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Members of the House Judiciary sub-committee are considering informally today whether they shall recommend a federal inquiry into the meat packing industry.

The committee had before them a mass of testimony taken during hearings which began in March and ended yesterday on Representative Borland's resolution for an investigation by the federal trade commission. Representatives of the cattle producers favored such an inquiry, while the packers opposed it on the ground that it would be detrimental to their business. Cattlemen argued that the action was necessary to insure reasonable meat prices to consumers.

The proposed inquiry, if ordered, may be broadened to include all questions affecting the growth, manufacture and marketing of meat products and allied industries. This is provided for in a substitute resolution offered in yesterday's hearing by Walter L. Fisher, counsel for the National Livestock Association, and accepted by Representative Borland.

The sub-committee will hasten its deliberations in an attempt to report to the full committee, which meets next Tuesday. It is considered doubtful, however, whether its work can be finished by that time.

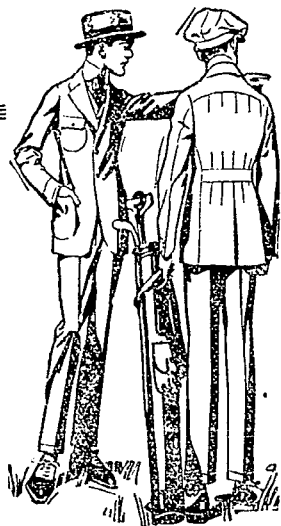

Father Is Seeking His Youthful Son

Dominique Dicanio, who lives just across the county line in Ross, wants his son, Tony, to come back to him. Tony, who is now 16 years old, disappeared eight months ago while he and his father were in Fresno, where they had gone to pick grapes. When Dominique was ready to board the train for Oakland he was given a note written by the boy, in which the lad told the father that he was going away and would write to him at the home address.

Dominique says that he has not heard of the boy since and wants to know where he is and why he doesn't come home. The boy ran away October 10, 1915.

Exhibition Rooms to Boost State

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—The directors of the Lincoln Realty Company have decided to convert a portion of their building, located at the corner of Fifth and Market streets, into a permanent exposition building. About 25,000 square feet of floor space, covering one immense floor, will be devoted to the permanent exhibition of California industries and others. The enterprise will be under the direct management of O. U. Smith, who has a wide experience in exposition matters. Permanent exhibition booths will be erected, which will conform in artistic design and coloring to those of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The several counties throughout the state will be invited to participate and comprehensive displays of their soil products will be installed.

Sing Sing Warden Resigns His Office

NEW YORK, July 7.—George W. Kirchwey tendered his resignation as warden of Sing Sing prison to James M. Carter, state superintendent of prisons, here last night and Thomas M. Osborne was re-appointed to the office. Osborne, who retired, as garden superintendent, had been indicted on several counts by a Westchester county grand jury, will resume his duties on July 16, Carter announced.

CLERGYMAN CONVICTED.

FRESNO, July 7.—Rev. Herman H. Rippe, former pastor of the Lutheran German church here, was sentenced to two years in San Quentin. He was convicted of fraud. His attorneys gave notice of appeal. The minister was found guilty of inducing two of the members of his congregation to endorse a $250 note, when they thought it was a $25 note. They could not read and did not discover the fraud, so it was brought out in the evidence, until the bank sued for collection.

Pass your cup again

THE cook has followed the directions in the vacuum-sealed tins—you wonder what's happened to your coffee! Good? Better than good—real coffee! Fine coffee such as Schilling's Best needs only one favor: please make it right.

The result is worth while—and economical. Not that the price by the pound is low, but a pound of Schilling's Best makes more cups of smooth, rich coffee. You can easily prove this. A great part of this economy is due to even grinding and immediate packing in vacuum-sealed tins.

Schilling's Best is sold through grocers only.
40 cents a pound.
